

When Toad woke up, he saw a note. The note had a task for him. It said, "Follow the rope."

Pete, the robot, sat on a throne made of cubes. Jill got up on the stage. She played the flute.

That evening, Dad got to work. He completed his task. "This is robot 'Pete.' He can wash up."

Frank saved a goal! His mates yelled, "Frank saved the day!" Frank was never late again.

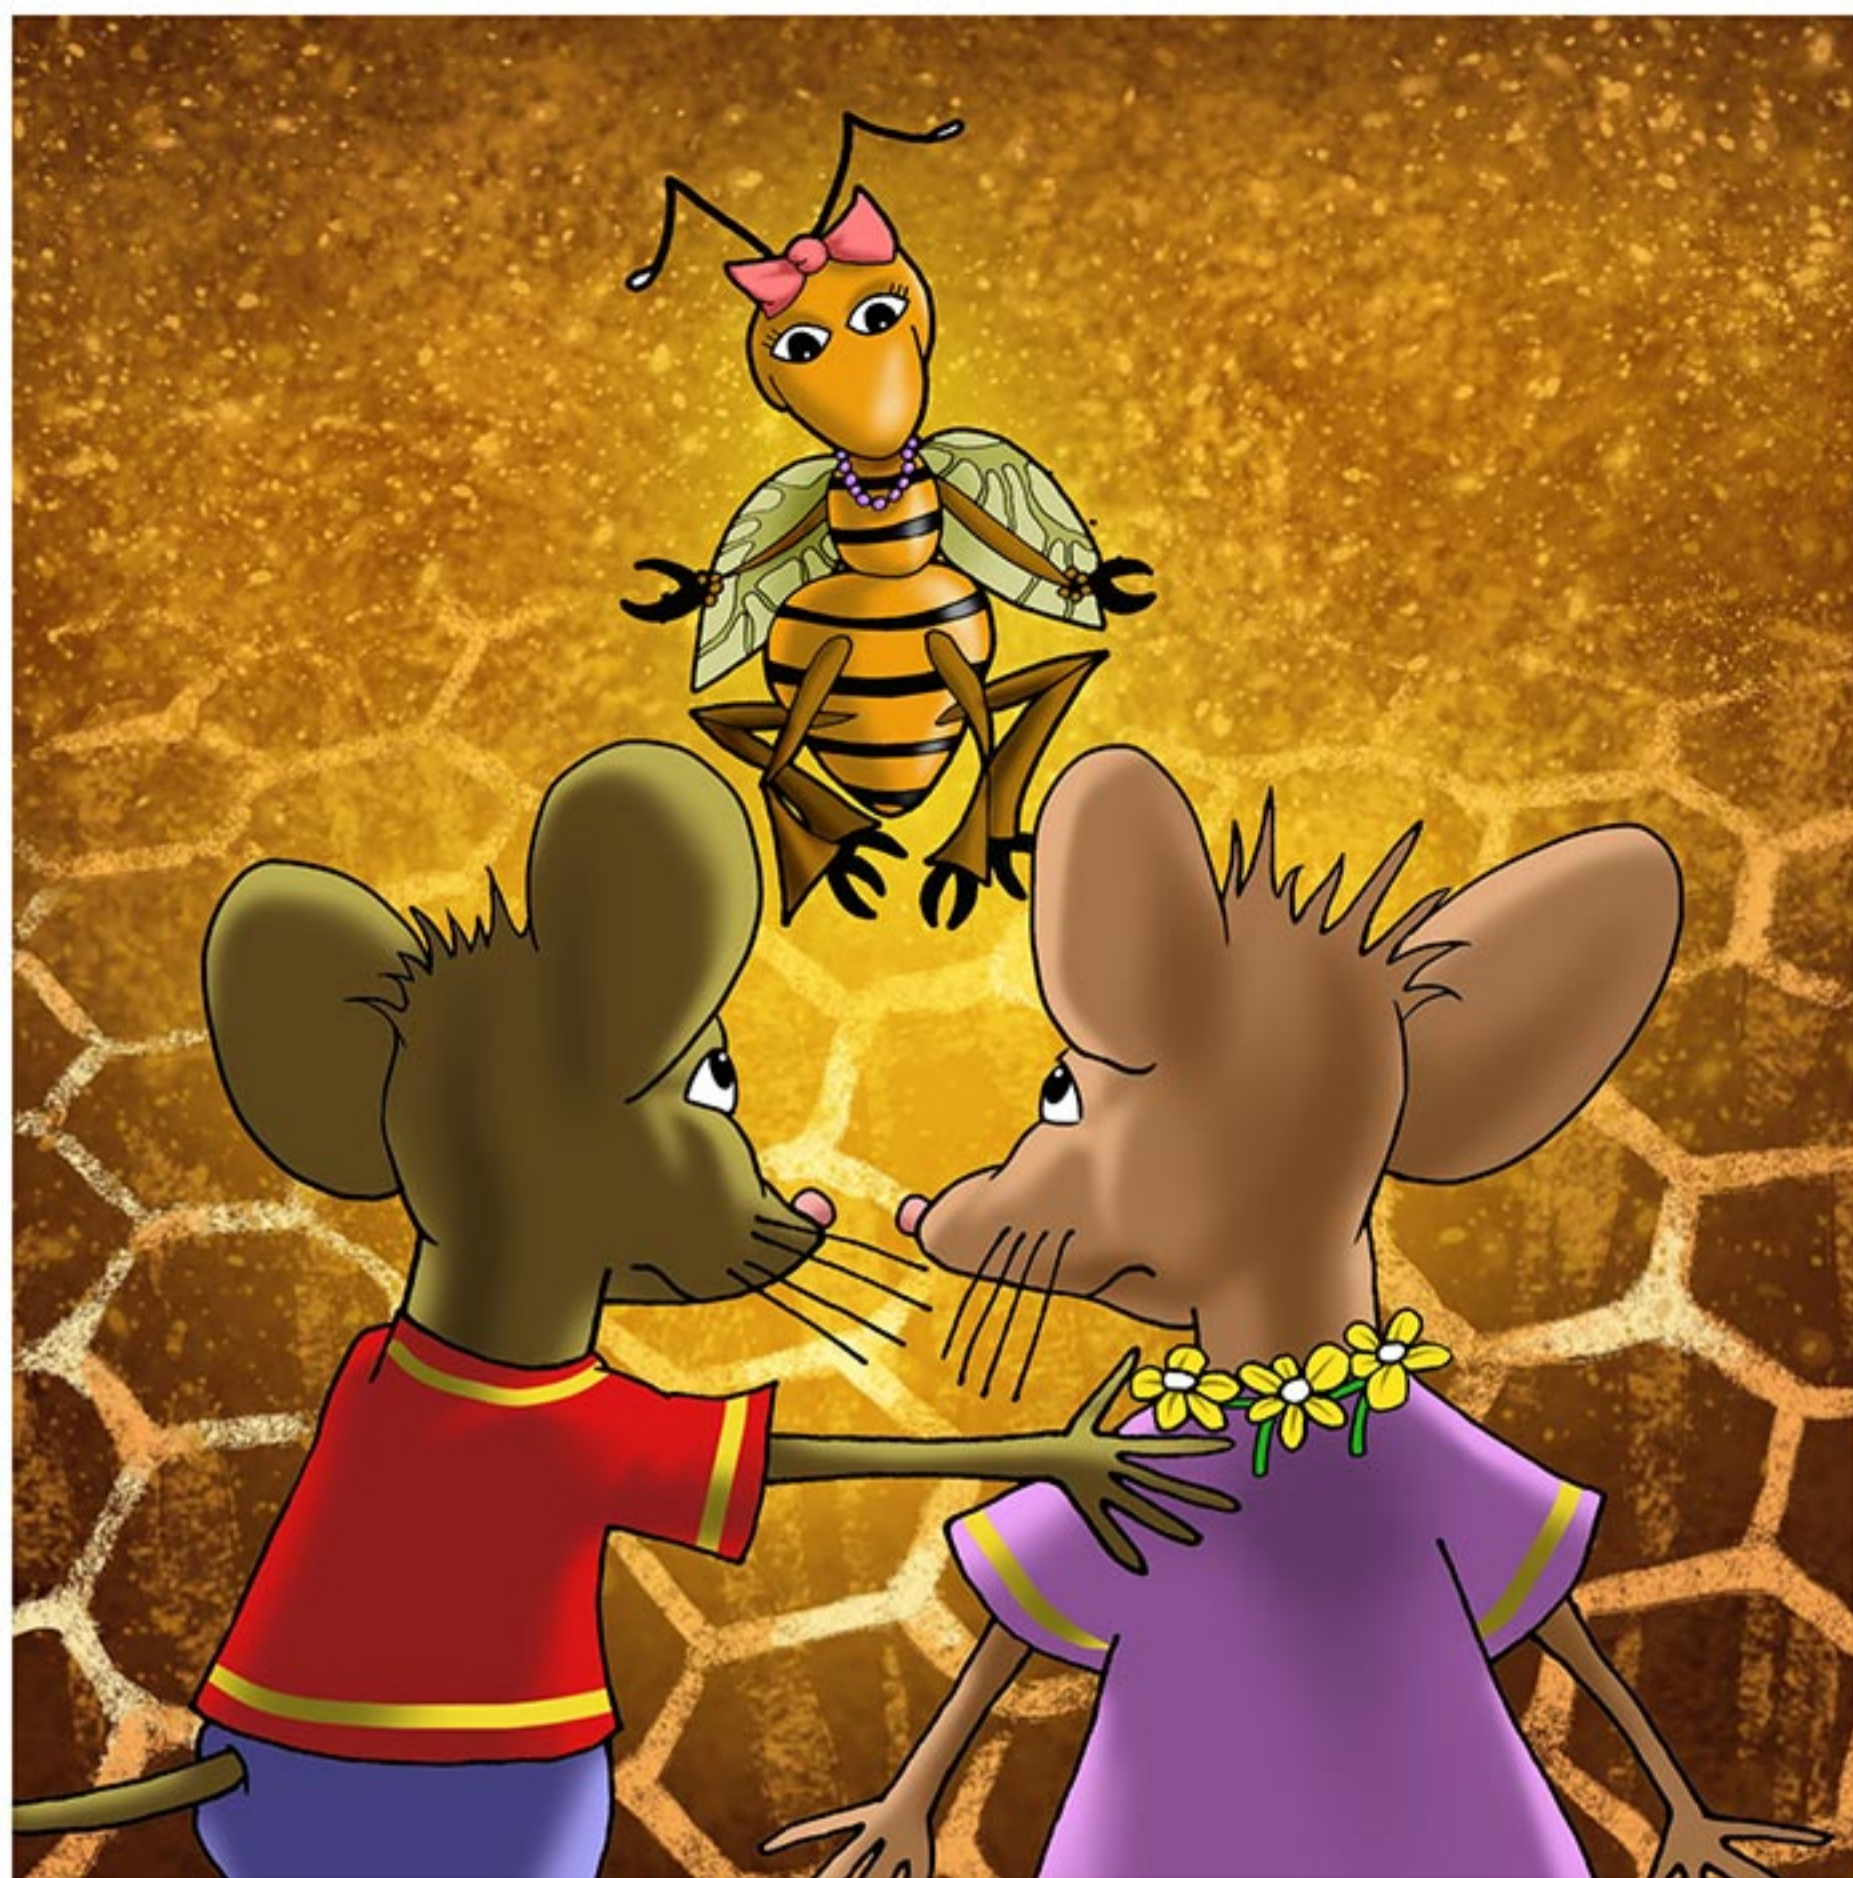

"Let's play chess," said Rex.

"We can use the cubes," said Jill.

They sat on cubes to play chess.

"Where can we hide?" wept Spice.

"Come to my hive!" said Kim.

"No, thanks," said Spice politely.
