2016 Edition

I kept hearing from our dearest customers that so many of my designs have a clear, almost iconic aesthetic. That there is always one piece that stands out and seems to represent the entire collection. That rang true to me because my creative process always starts with a spark of an idea, a kernel of a form, which blossoms into a collection.

I decided to take that idea and do something we had never done before - to create dramatic, courageous, large-scale, limited-edition sculptures. The finishes would be in keeping with the importance of the pieces - gold plated, hand painted, highly polished. For those special ten designs we would make a limited edition. Only 300 of each in the world would ever be made, each one signed by me and numbered. And then we literally smash the mold!

NEW JAPONESQUE collection

The Japanese aesthetic philosophy of wabi sabi says that in imperfections there is simple beauty...in randomness there is order. The NEW JAPONESQUE collection celebrates this concept through a series of motifs that take this ancient ideal and bring it into a modern context.

"The Japanese are known for striving for harmony with a minimal and a cerebral quality to design. Japonesque is my interpretation with some deliberate glamour thrown in."

BRANCHES collection

Branching forms are found everywhere in nature, inspiring this collection of antlers, trees, twigs and corals. The BRANCHES COLLECTION captures the essence of rustic modern style.

"After all these years living in California I am still enchanted by the stunning native Manzanita tree. Strong enough to survive months without water, it doesn't lose its sculptural beauty. There's a lesson in there!"

Mariposa

POD collection

The POD COLLECTION is beautifully organic, simple, yet voluptuous. Claylike and sensual in form, it has a tactile quality. Anything served in these dishes is transformed.

"When I designed this collection I could not have foreseen the reception it received. People tell me they can bring out the pieces every day and for special occasions. I think its success is because it has that hard to find aesthetic that seems to always work whatever the occasion."

TRIBAL Collection

Gathering together at the table has a deep and ancestral meaning for people all over the world, going back to the earliest days of humankind when we came together for community, support and survival. Today, the family table, even at its most beautiful, is a representation of the "modern tribe". This was the inspiration behind the DJEMBE' COLLECTION. Incorporating an interpretive and abstracted motif, it is modernism interpreted through an ancient voice and sensibility.

"These textures have a masculinity and strength. You can see the hand of the artist. I love the idea that you can create a sophisticated tablescape yet still capture a powerful tribal spirit."

M. J. J. J.

LUXE CASUAL collection

Entertaining today is a major part of daily life. Any get-together can be a moment for a declaration of style, even for casual occasions. Whether it's Chinese take-out with friends or an ice-cream social with the kids, the LUXE CASUAL COLLECTION is all about turning even the most informal gathering in to something stylish.

"I believe we always have the choice to be fabulous yet maintain a casual ease. Who has time to transfer store bought foods into serving dishes? So I designed the ice-cream container. They've been a hit ever since."

TOTEM collection

From the obelisks of ancient Egypt to the carved totems of the Native Americans to the stacked stone cairns of the Celtic people...every culture throughout history has used some form of towering object to convey meaning. The TOTEM COLLECTION gives a gentle and abstracted nod to these powerful yet elemental structures.

"I was originally inspired by african sculptures. These shapes are geometric but almost primal. It's amazing that a simple object can reach us on such a deep level."

GRECO collection

Ancient vessels, no matter where they come from around the world, are the ultimate marriage of beauty, form and function. They evolved over the centuries based on how people lived and an artistic heritage handed down from teacher to apprentice. That idea is at the core of timeless design and is the heart of the GRECO COLLECTION.

"I was inspired by history but I wanted to make the collection modern and chic in every way. One of the most fun things to do as a designer is creating future collectables!"

AQUOS collection

Water takes on varied forms and creates many habitats. The AQUOS COLLECTION strives to express its many interpretations, from the ripples of undulating circles to placid and mirror-like surfaces to the scales of a fish.

MOD ICONS collection

The middle of the 20th Century signified an explosion of ideas and new thinking. The aesthetic engendered by that time resulted in a sensibility that still reads as vibrant and daring today. The MOD ICONS COLLECTION channels that style into a series of objects that are current but capture that spirit of the iconic period.

"For me, mod is different than modern. It's a look and feeling that signifies a totally glam way of life!"

MODERN FAUNA collection

We all love the whimsy and warmth of animal shapes. The MODERN FAUNA COLLECTION celebrates the most identifiable characteristics of each animal and exaggerates them. This sculptural collection has the signature rounded and decidedly modernist aesthetic for which Lunares is so well known.

"I've always liked art that did not take itself too seriously. I wanted to create sculptures for the home which were sophisticated and dramatic, but without pretention."

OBJECTS collection

The OBJECTS COLLECTION is a group of unique pieces. Whether childlike and humorous, or deep and symbolic, each conveys a message. They make perfect gifts. The moment you see one you know who it's for.

"Who has time for meaningless gestures? When I give a gift, it has to say something. That's what this collection is all about."

GOOD LUCK Collection

Every culture on earth has symbols of good fortune and protection. Throughout human history, these powerful talismans have embodied almost a magical meaning. The GOOD LUCK COLLECTION of twelve lucky pieces, takes its inspiration from symbols derived from cultures from around the world and throughout time. They are beautiful as decorative objects but also make very meaningful gifts.

"I am playfully superstitious myself and always feel a bit of comfort when I have my good luck charms around me. I figured I might as well make them beautiful to have around!"

A stylized signature in gold ink, likely belonging to the designer, Michael Giacchino.

WISHBONE Collection

Representing hopes, dreams and possibilities, the Wishbone has become a timeless symbol of the house of NIMA OBEROI LUNARES. The simple yet highly sculptural form adorns a wide range of pieces that are simultaneously decorative, functional and symbolic. Today the Wishbone also signifies the promise for hope for those who need it most and acts as the iconic image behind the Ricks-Oberoi Foundation, an organization founded to help financially distressed and medically underserved women and their families overcome the complicated barriers to breast cancer treatment and survival. A percentage of proceeds from the Wishbone are donated to the Foundation.

"This symbol goes very deep for me. It's a reminder to wish big and always reach for our dreams."

JUDAICA Collection

The JUDAICA COLLECTION is inspired by the Jewish tradition that artistry and aesthetics contribute to our enjoyment of spiritual acts. When we create beautiful ritual objects then beauty itself takes on a spiritual dimension.

"I'm deeply captivated by the meaning and purpose of Judaica. These pieces transcend religion and elevate the mundane."
