

OLLIE BURWELL

Luxury silk sarongs, hand crafted from the finest silk, wear as a dress, beach wrap or scarf.

OLLIE BURWELL

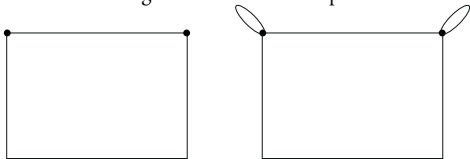

Our luxury silk sarongs are made with the finest, most luxurious silk. Each sarong is unique, hand made by skilled artisans using traditional methods of batik. Beautifully lightweight and versatile, you can wear as a dress, beach wrap and scarf. Explore our 9 ways to wear.

All of our sarongs can be hand washed or machine washed at 30°. Do not tumble dry, air naturally.

BUNNY SKIRT

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners and place behind the body

STEP 2 With each hand, gather two 'bunny ears' about 10" on each side

STEP 3 Swing fabric around waist to fit, adjusting the length by gathering and folding it over

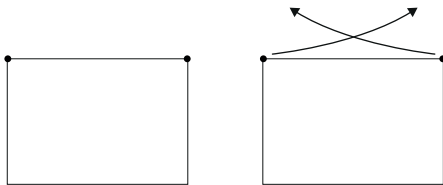

STEP 4 With the 'ears' in each hand, fold them over and loosely tie with a double knot

STEP 5 Slide the knot around the the side or back

HALTERNECK

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners and place behind the body

STEP 2 Take each corner and put it over the opposite shoulder

STEP 3 Gather the two corners behind the neck and tie securely

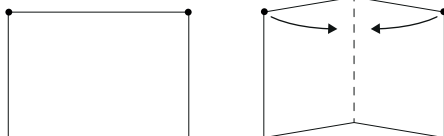

STEP 4 Leave full length or use a belt to cinch the waist or to reduce the length

MILLIONAIRE DRESS

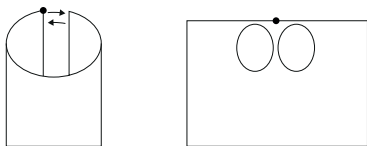

How To Wear Guide

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners

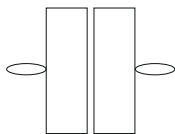

STEP 2 Fold in half and tie the two new corners together

STEP 3 Open the two sides up, place arms through the two holes and wear like a waistcoat

STEP 4 Once the sarong is being worn as a jacket, line up each edge to meet at the belly button

STEP 5 Gather all the spare silk from behind the body and form two 'bunny ears' at the waist

STEP 6 Feed the two 'ears' through the buckle and tie tightly in front of the belly button

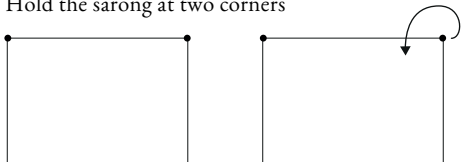

ONE SHOULDER DRESS

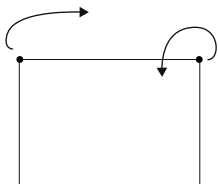

How To Wear Guide

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners

STEP 2 Take one corner under the arm and pull over the shoulder

STEP 3 Hold in place and wrap the rest of the sarong snugly around the back of the body

STEP 4 Bring the fabric around to the front under the same arm

STEP 5 Adjust the silk so the two ends can be tied in a knot over the shoulder

STEP 6 Tuck any spare silk underneath at the back

SKINNY HALTERNECK

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners and place behind the body

STEP 2 Take each corner and pull out in front the body, tie together and pull in towards the bust

STEP 3 Twist each end round and round

STEP 4 Once secure, pull behind the neck and tie with a small knot

STRAPLESS DRESS

- STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners and place behind the body
- STEP 2 Hold each corner out in front the body
- STEP 3 Feed each end through the two holes in the buckle and ease back to the centre of the bust

- STEP 4 Fold each strap behind the body, left and right
- STEP 5 Tuck the straps into your bikini or tie behind the body in a small knot
- STEP 6 Once secure, fold the front panels over each other

STRAPLESS BOW DRESS

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners and place behind the body

STEP 2 Hold each corner out in front the body and tie the two ends together, securing it on the bust

STEP 3 Tie the two ends into a bow and arrange the front to drape over one another

STRAPLESS BOW BACK DRESS

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners and place behind the body

STEP 2 Hold each corner out in front of the body and tie the two ends together, securing it on the bust

STEP 3 Tie the two ends into a bow and arrange the front to drape over one another

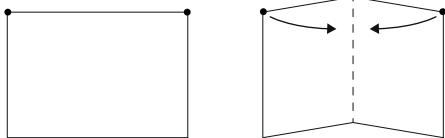

STEP 4 Arrange the sarong so that the bow is directly at the back of the body

MINI DRESS

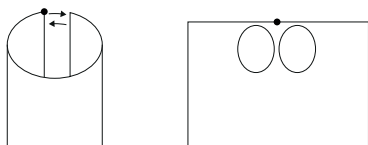

How To Wear Guide

STEP 1 Hold the sarong at two corners

STEP 2 Fold in half and tie two corners together

STEP 3 Open the two sides up, place arms through the two holes and wear like a waistcoat

STEP 4 Once the sarong is being worn as a jacket, gather the silk loosely around the waist

STEP 5 Pick up the 'saddlebags' at the widest part and pull up to waist height

STEP 6 Fold the two ends in front of the body and loosely tie into a knot on your waist

OLLIEBURWELL.COM

contact@ollieburwell.com | +44(o) 7887 633330