Word from the Editor

This issue of Greyfriars Review has been printed in the United States, and, hopefully, will reach you more economically and quickly. We have made this decision because of increasing printing costs and postal rates, and interminable delays at customs.

With this change, however, we are also losing the assistance of two generous, dedicated and patient brothers, Charles Serignat and Edmund Walker, who have been working on both sides of the Atlantic to make sure bills were paid, subscriptions respected, and mailings posted. From the very beginning of this venture, both friars have given of themselves, at times under very difficult circumstances. We thank them for everything they have done and, above all, for their encouragement and cooperation. Robert Gloz, O.F.M.Cap., is our new Business Manager. We want to welcome him and thank him for his willingness to join our endeavor.

Finally, thanks to the generous efforts of our translators and the patient endurance of our Production Manager, John Schug, we have decided to publish Greyfriars Review four times each year. Our hope is that in addition to the three issues covered by your subscription, we shall add a special complimentary supplement, in which we shall publish our translation of a lengthier article on some aspect of Franciscan interest. We hope this pleases you as much as it does us.

Once again, thank you for your encouragement and, when necessary, your patience and understanding. Please God, we are improving Greyfriars Review and, in doing so, benefiting more and more in our Franciscan Family. May the Lord fill your hearts with peace.

Regis J. Armstrong, O.F.M.Cap.
