

Dror

Quadror Metal Sculpture

2005

FINISHES

Structure Finish - Metal

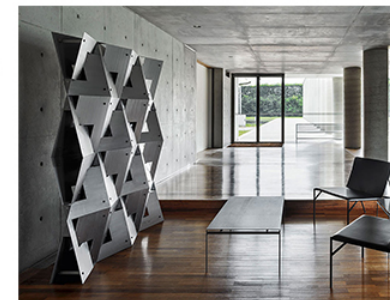

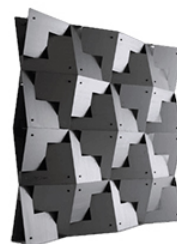

Crude Metal

MATERIALS

- Metal

Quadror Sculpture is a piece of art born from the creativity of Dror Benshetrit representing with its geometrical forms the fil rouge of the Quadror collection. Made of untreated brushed metal, with screw heads in solid ebony.

Sculpture made with crude metal elements that are screwed to each other. The screw covers are made of ebony wood.

