The collection of upholstered furniture Worn is composed by an armchair, a two- and three-seater sofa . The distinctive detail - a conflicting faux leather patch that covers the arms - is strategically positioned on the most rested areas - the arm rest.

Frame in plywood with elastic belts. Padding in polyurethane. Upholstery in leather, faux leather or fabric. The inserts on the armrests are always made of faux leather & the visible seams on the inserts are in the same color as the faux leather.
