Dear Ruhof Customer:

The Ruhof Corporation takes its responsibility to maintain supplies for our customers during crisis situations very seriously.

As the coronavirus outbreak (COVID-19) continues to develop around the world, we are taking preventative actions to maintain our supplies of raw material to insure the full operation of our production facilities. We are also monitoring our various means of product transportation to insure timely deliveries to all our customers.

Ruhof is also working hard to ensure we implement best practices from U.S. and other global health authorities. This includes promoting handwashing and healthy hygiene practices among our employees, vendors, contractors and guests.

We will continuously follow the developing situation and keep you updated of any changes. If you have any questions, please contact your Ruhof Sales Representative for assistance.

Sincerely,
