An alternative take on our world

As a special projects magazine, we feature timeless pictorials, deep stories, and unique collaborations with some of the most creative and sought-after personalities in the fields of fashion, contemporary art, and celebrity culture. Each project, story, and partnership is carefully selected. We are a magazine about passion, the change in seasons, travel, the unusual, and the human condition. The Unseasonal is of a rare, artistic quality in times of fast fashion and social media madness. It shall represent the feeling of a getaway, of slowing down, of exotic places, escapism, breathtaking dreams, and lightness of being, all with elements from the past, the future, Romanticism, and impulses for making the world a better place. Iconic, artistic photography, new perspectives, and fresh writing are at its core.
