

Resource 28: Typical layout of an older pupil's classroom

Older pupils' classrooms look something like this. The desks are arranged in groups facing forwards. The teacher's desk is at the side. There is a blackboard or whiteboard. There is a display board. There is a computer in the corner. There are sets of books on cupboards round the room.

