

Resource 29: Typical layout of a senior pupil's classroom

This is what many senior pupils' classrooms look like. The desks are arranged on three sides of the room with the teacher's desk placed on the fourth side. The pupils face the teacher and each other. The numbers of pupils in this classroom tend to be smaller than lower down the school. There's a blackboard or whiteboard. There may be an overhead projector and screen.

