

Resource 35: Patterns of tiredness

- EAL pupils often become tired from coping with a new language and new surroundings
- they get most tired just before a half-term or longer holiday
- during the holiday, they consolidate internally the English they have learned
- when they return, they move forward once again