Her red lips

Perfectly smooth lips are a must when you're doing a bold shade. "Sometimes I mix brown sugar and lip balm together to exfoliate my lips," says Jagger. For the color, try Rimmel London Stay Glossy 6-Hour Lip Gloss in Timeless Allure ($5, at drugstores). Top, Derek Lam.

Her natural skin

"My mom uses olive oil and avocado oil on her skin and hair, so I use that too now," says Jagger. "When I travel, I bring moisturizer with me, and I apply it on the plane." Her pick: Honey Girl Organics Face & Eye Crème, Extra Sensitive ($33, honeygirlorganics.com). Jacket, Just Cavalli.

Her glam waves

Jagger can't resist the biggest hairstyle du jour: retro Hollywood waves. To get them, wrap large sections of dry hair around a one-inch curling iron, hold for five seconds, and release. Repeat all over, mist with hairspray, then brush out curls to get that glassy, undulating look. Try Garnier Fructis Style Flexible Control Anti-Humidity Hairspray ($4.50, at drugstores).
