It is the cheapest carrier. There is no extra charge for residential or Saturday delivery. Also, the shipments are protected by U.S. federal law and USPS is authorized to place packages in mailboxes. Normally, the packages are delivered 1 ~ 3 business day include Saturday.		A bit of a specialist in the next day delivery, UPS offers best available flight, next business day by 8:00 a.m., next business day by 10:30 a.m., next day by Noon or two business days by end of day. Easy to find UPS stores and customer service centers.	FedEx is slightly less expensive than UPS but is not cheap. The more urgent your delivery, the more you have to pay. If your delivery can be made later in the day or in one or two business days, then the price drops significantly. This would be a good option if you want to guaranteed a delivery on time.
