DELIVERY POLICY

ALL special services, including lift gate, will be billed to the customer. This includes inside delivery, sort and segregate, detention, redelivery, or anything other than receiving the shipment from the rear of the carrier's trailer.

Customer is solely responsible for verifying condition, accuracy, and count of items at time of delivery in the presence of carrier. Left Coast Wholesale cannot accept claims for damage, errors, or shortages without documented proof. Claims may be denied if damage, error, or shortage is not noted on the delivery receipt at time of delivery. Customer is responsible for noting at time of delivery which pallets or items have been received and which are missing, incorrect, or damaged. Claims for concealed or internal damage, errors, or shortages that are not identified at time of delivery must be submitted to Left Coast Wholesale within 24 hours of receipt and are subject to review with no guarantee of approval. Contact your Left Coast Wholesale sales representative for more information.
