HOW TO SMUDGE WHITE SAGE BUNDLES

Make sure there is nothing flammable nearby. Hold the stem of a dried bundle or stick with the tip pointing down at a 45 degree angle.

Light the tip and let the small flame burn for 30-60 seconds.
If you are burning loose herbs, such as sage, place a small amount in a fireproof bowl on a burning piece of charcoal.

Gently blow out the flame so that only smoke is produced.

To smudge your body, hold the bundle in your hand and make a round movement around yourself. To smudge is to fill the space with the herb's smoke or let the smoke touch your body.

LINE DESCRIPTION: Our high-quality White Sage is known for its rich and pleasantly bitter scent and inherent qualities that are suitable for the spiritual and energetic purification of homes, meditation rooms and people themselves. HOW TO SMUDGE WHITE SAGE LEAVES

Light the tip of some leaves until there's a small flame. Gently blow it out until only smoke is produced. Place it in a fireproof bowl or an abalone shell in a safe place away from flammable objects, children and pets. Smudging is done by safely carrying the smoking bundle (still in the bowl) throughout your space so the smoke reaches every corner.
