

CRYSTAL JAPA MALA - 108 PRAYER BEADS FACT SHEET

CRYSTAL JAPA MALA - 108 PRAYER BEADS

KEY FEATURES:

100% natural, handmade, kept sealed for energetic protection, supports artisans in India.

INGREDIENTS: Polished Crystal Beads, cotton string.

INTENTION: Meditation, clarity.

CORRESPONDING MANTRA: Om.

CORRESPONDING DEITY: Lord Buddha.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION: This mala, made from clear crystal, is ideally matched to the mantra “Om,” which was the first sound of the universe. It symbolizes the transparency of the meditative state, in which there are neither thoughts nor feelings, but only radiant emptiness. The 108 round beads are carved and polished moonstone. The mala’s corresponding mantra as well as the significance of the prayer beads are provided on an attractive insert. This mala is knotted, providing a space between the beads to allow one to be held at a time for the spiritual practice of japa.

PRODUCT NAME: The mala beads are carved from clear crystal.

PRODUCT ATTRIBUTES: This mala, made from clear crystal, is ideally matched to the mantra “Om,” which was the first sound of the universe. The 108 round beads are carved and polished moonstone. The mala’s corresponding mantra as well as the significance of the prayer beads are provided on an attractive insert.

WHY CUSTOMERS LOVE IT: In addition to each mala being carefully handmade by artisans in India, where the spiritual practice of these prayer beads originated, we explain the importance of keeping their sacred energy pure. No one else should touch the beads. As it is highly important to keep your mala away from external energy, we have designed an attractive encasement, available only at Prabhuji’s Gifts, in order to keep the beads’ energy sealed and completely protected from unwanted energy.

UPC: 8-09581-80416-4
Length: 15”
Width: 0.25”
Height: 0.25”
Weight: 0.14 lb
Contains: 108 beads

PRAYER MALA BEADS - SKU: 804-16

LINE DESCRIPTION: The mala is a sacred string of prayer beads blessed with mantras that spiritual aspirants use in a practice called “japa.” Each mala has the auspicious number of 108 beads plus the untouched sumeru bead, which are made from natural materials capable of carrying energetic vibrations. Traditionally, the spiritual master blesses the mala with mantras and transfers divine energy to a disciple upon giving it.

PACKAGING: Our prayer beads come in transparent cases, a design found only at Prabhuji’s Gifts to protect and seal their spiritual energy while allowing the beads and their unique textures to be seen. Each encasement is decorated with unique Indian art depicting the Divine form to which the mala is connected, and comes with information on the beads and their ideal mantra. The corresponding mantra is provided in an attractive insert.

CERTIFICATIONS:

- Gold-level Green America Certified Business
- Better Business Bureau (BBB) Accredited Business: rating A+

CHARITABLE CAUSE: Prabhuji’s Gifts supports Bhaktivedanta Mission, a New York-based, nonprofit religious organization that is home to a spiritual community. The mission’s volunteers perform devotional service to others, a yogic spiritual practice, and the mission runs humanitarian projects including the Prabhuji Food Rescue Program, in which the organization feeds people in need in the USA, Dominican Republic, Colombia and India. By purchasing Prabhuji’s Gifts products, you help support these causes.

HOW TO PRACTICE JAPA

Sit cross-legged in a meditative place and starting with the bead next to the sumeru (the largest bead often with a tassel), holding it with your right thumb and middle finger. Do not touch the sumeru, the 109th bead. Gently roll the bead back and forth while saying the provided mantra, drawing your attention to the feel of the bead and the sound of the mantra. Do this on each of the 108 beads to complete a round. Do as many rounds as are desired or instructed.

