

Helen Norton Art Exhibition and Fund Raiser for The Autism Association of Western Australia

Well known WA Artist, Helen Norton and the Autism Association team up to raise funds for AAWA's new community house in Churchill Ave

Helen Norton, Norton Gallery, and the Autism Association are holding an art auction to raise funds to help kit out and furnish the Association's Community Options Clubhouse in Churchill Ave.

Artwork to the value of $26,000 has been donated by Helen Norton as well as other art items. 100% of the money raised in the auction as well as 10% of all other gallery sales during the ticket event will go towards fitting out the clubhouse with computers and furniture, making it a great place to be for those with Autism.

The auction will be held at the Norton Gallery on 28th April, and is a ticket only event. *See below for details on how to get a ticket. Tickets are limited for the auction event.

However, Helen Norton's exciting new exhibition 'No-Ark - How Do We Stay Enchanted?' is open to the general public from the 27th April 2012. Entry is free. The exhibition runs till May 26th.

At Norton Gallery
346 South Terrace, South Fremantle WA
Ph: (08) 9336 5130
Further details will be available at:
www.nortongallery.com.au
after 9th April

For further press details on this event please contact Helen Norton on 0418 921648
info@helenorton.com.au or Amber at AAWA at autismwa@autism.org.au TICKETS will be made available at:
www.autism.org.au on or about 9th April.

Shown above : Helen Norton and Russell Thomas, Executive Manager of Employment and Community Options Services for the Autism Association.
Shown at left: 'Hybrid Car' - by Helen Norton

