

LESSON 1

God requires obedience • Deuteronomy 4:1-40

Remembering the Past

Match each picture to the category which illustrates it.

1. Creation – God and Man Together (Gen 1-2)

2. Fall – God and Man Separated (Gen 3-11)

3. Promise – God Chooses a People for Himself (Gen 12-50)

4. Deliverance – God Rescues Israel (Exod 1-Lev 28)

5. Rebellion – Israel Refuses to Listen (Num 1-34)

Moses recalled God's relationship with Israel over the last forty years, and he showed that Israel's relationship with God was to produce faithful obedience.

“Therefore you shall keep his _____ and his _____, which I _____ you today, that it may go well with you and with your _____ after you, and that you may _____ your days in the _____ that the LORD your God is giving you for all time” (Deut 4:40).

The principles Moses preached to Israel apply to all believers. Just as Israel was redeemed from Egypt in order to serve God through obedience, so all believers were redeemed from sin in order to serve Christ through obedience.
