Faith, Law of the New Covenant

By Charles Capps

Genesis 1:1 reveals that God created the heavens and the earth. The Apostle John gave us some very important details of the creation.

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God...All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.” (John 1:1-3) Verse 14 reveals the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us in the person of Jesus. Hebrews, chapter 11 gives us insight into the fact that God framed the world.

“Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.” (Hebrews 11:3)

Just as God framed the worlds with His Words, we are also framing our world daily with our own words either for better or worse. The law of faith is one of the means of changing your world around you and your family.

Everything you see on this earth began with words. God’s words are the most powerful force in the universe today. Words are transmitters. Your words can transmit faith or fear. They are also capable of transmitting the faith of Jesus Christ.

Hebrews 11:1 says, “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” Faith is the title deed. It is the substance of things that God has already given to us.

II Peter 1:3-4 tells us He has given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness. He also tells us He gave us all these things through the “...exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature.” God has released sufficient faith in every promise to cause it to become a reality in your life. Faith is the substance of those things God has already given us.

Paul said, “But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference.” (Romans 3:21-22)

Faith is the substance that is resident in His Word. Jesus said, “...the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.” (John 6:63) When being tempted by the devil Jesus said, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.” There is life in every word of God. In contrast, there is death in the words of the devil, and they will afflict and oppress everyone who speaks them.

When we speak God’s Word after Him, that Word creates within us the divine energy of God called faith. That faith is capable of transforming a sinner from unrighteousness into righteousness.

“Just as God framed the worlds with His Words, we are framing our world daily with our own words either for better or for worse.”

In Romans, chapter 3 Paul reveals that faith is the Law of the New Covenant.

“Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, at this time his righteousness:

that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus...By what law? Of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.” (Romans 3:25-27)

“Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.” (Romans 3:31)

Notice that Paul calls faith a law saying you can’t boast about being the righteousness of God, because it is not something you did. But it is something you received by faith when you were born-again. You are justified by faith. We could say it this way: Justified means just-as-if-I-had-not-sinned. “Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.” (Romans 3:28) What is he talking about establishing? He is certainly not referring to establishing the law of the Old Covenant, which was a law of works. In Galatians, chapter three Paul gives us the reason for the law of the Old Covenant.

“...for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.” (Galatians 3:21)

“...before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster." (Galatians 3:23-25)

It is evident from these verses in Galatians and in Romans 3:31 that he is not referring to the law of the Old Covenant, but the law of the New Covenant, which is faith.

For it is by grace that you are saved through faith. That faith comes from the Word of God.

Paul, in Romans 8, refers again to the Law of God. "...the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." (Romans 8:7) Some try to operate the law of faith in their head—that is called mental assent, but faith works in the heart. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness. You can't believe with your head what you can't believe with your heart.

Even under the New Covenant we still observe the spirit of the law, but not the letter.

II Corinthians 3:6 tells us why. "Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." It is not through works, but rather through faith that we receive redemption and all the benefits Christ provided at Calvary. They are finished. He has already given them to us. Psalm 107:20 says, "He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions."

Notice it didn't say that He sent His Word to heal them. He sent His Word and healed them. It was done two ways, His written Word and Jesus who was the Word of God personified.

"And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us..." (John 1:14)

The Law of Faith, which operates by the power of the spoken Word, can change your situation in life. Here are some of the principles of that law.

"And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." (Matthew 21:22)

"...whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith...What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." (Mark 11:23-24)

"...If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you." (Luke 17:6) These principles and others reveal how the law of faith works to overcome the circumstances of life.

MARANATHA!

A few weeks ago as I was driving my 7 year old daughter to school I came across your teaching on Quantum Faith. It immediately caught the attention of my daughter.

From that moment on, every morning she requests to hear your teachings. The first thing she says once she gets in the car is, "Daddy is the video of Sis. Annette ready for me to listen to?" By the time I pull out of the garage, you are in full swing teaching the Word and she is all ears.

Just last week, she heard one of your Dad's teachings and has added him to her request also. Our car is now a Concepts of Faith car. Praise the Lord!!

Agents of Two Kingdoms

BY ANNETTE CAPPS

The word “agent” is defined as “a person who acts on behalf of another person or group” and “a person or thing that takes an active role or produces a specified effect” (such as an agent of change.)

There are agents representing two different kingdoms at work in this world.

Whether we realize it or not, there is constant conflict between the kingdom of God and satan’s kingdom, and we are caught in the middle. We may not see the actual spiritual forces battling and competing for the lives of people, but we can see the results. And it is becoming more and more apparent that the forces of evil are controlling more and more people who are yielding to darkness. Those of us in the light are standing out more and more also, as the darkness grows greater, our light, the light of Christ glows as a beacon.

It is most important to recognize that we are not fighting with people or circumstances, but with the wicked spirits that are behind all the warfare. In Ephesians 6:12, Paul says, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.”

The circumstances that arise to harass and intimidate us, and those people who persecute and oppose us, are motivated by wicked spirits. But Jesus has given us authority over all the power of the enemy! We can put a stop to the attack of the enemy when we recognize it as such.

Fallen Angels and Demons

When Lucifer fell, he took one-third of the angels with him. These fallen angels now assist satan in ruling his kingdom in much the same order as they assisted God in ruling His kingdom.

Satan not only has fallen angels working for him, but he also rules over other wicked spirits called demons. These demonic spirits, a pre-Adamic race, are used by satan to blind the minds of unbelievers and keep them from coming to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. They also oppress minds and bodies, bringing depression and sickness upon the human race. Their ultimate goal is to possess a human body and destroy that individual.

Satan hates us because we are God’s creation, created in His image and likeness. He still believes he can exalt himself above God by convincing God’s creation to serve him. If he cannot gain a convert, he will seek to convince a Christian to: (1) doubt God’s Word, (2) question God’s goodness, (3) walk in disobedience to God’s Will.

These are the same tactics satan used to deceive the angels and then deceive Eve. Be wise to his tactics, because they never change!

Personal Assignments

Even though there are agents of the kingdom of darkness assigned to keep you from knowing Jesus, there are agents of God’s kingdom assigned to see that you have the opportunity to hear about Jesus.

These angels are also assigned to protect you.

It should be a comfort for us to know that we have a personal agent of God sent to “keep us in all our ways and bear us up in their hands, lest we dash our foot against a stone.” (Psalm 91:11-12)

There also are wicked spirits which attach themselves to families. These spirits continue to oppress, even to the children and grandchildren.

You have probably seen this yourself: In families where the father is an alcoholic, the son becomes an alcoholic, and then his son also becomes an alcoholic. You can also see this with depression, suicide, insanity, sexual sins, and drug addiction.

When these spirits become familiar with a family, they do not want to leave. The bondage must be broken and the demon’s assignment dismissed. Often, these demons become so firmly rooted that it takes much intercession and vigilance to keep them from returning.

The first step is to recognize the assignment and how it manifests itself. If you think that your family just has a “tendency” for this problem, the problem may never be dealt with. Recognize and expose these wicked spirits for what they are. Then you must rebuke them in Jesus' Name and tell them to leave.

After you have done this, you must resist any attempt of that spirit to return. Always be aware that a spirit will try to return to its former habitation. But the Bible says if we resist the devil (or any evil spirit), he will flee in terror. (James 4:7) So be on your guard and resist!

Agents Over Cities and Nations

In the kingdom of darkness, there are wicked angels and high-ranking demon spirits that are assigned to rule over and manipulate cities and entire nations. Many times I have driven into a city and felt the oppression of the enemy.

Religious spirits are ruling over some cities; in other cities, it is perversion. The city takes on the characteristic of the wicked spirit that is ruling there.

“And he said to me, ‘O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.’ While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling. Then he said to me, ‘Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia...’ “

(Daniel 10:11-13 NKJV)

The angel that appeared to Daniel as a result of his prayers informed him that he had been delayed because of the “prince of Persia.” This prince was not a man, for no man could withstand this angel of God. The prince of Persia was definitely a spirit being, and I believe it was a fallen angel.

Only another angel could be strong enough to require the assistance of Michael! Also, in verse 13, Michael is called “one of the chief princes,” which is the same Hebrew word used for the “prince of Persia.”

Here we see Michael, the archangel (an agent of God's kingdom) actually came to help an angel who was hindered by the prince of the kingdom of Persia (an agent of Satan's kingdom). This was one of Satan's high ranking agents who was controlling the geographic, political area of Persia.

These wicked spirits who rule over cities and nations can be dealt with through the authority of Jesus' name and the prophetic anointing.

Special Assignments

When an individual is walking in obedience to God to the extent that he or she is doing irreparable damage to Satan's kingdom, he sends a “special assignment.” This agent, sent by the devil, will persecute and stir up all kinds of trouble to hinder the servant of God.

In Second Corinthians 12, we read that Paul was given a “thorn in the flesh.” Many people mistakenly suppose that this was a sickness sent by God to keep Paul humble. Actually, verse seven tells us that the “thorn” was a messenger (fallen angel) sent by Satan to buffet Paul.

Everywhere Paul went, there was terrible persecution and trouble. Satan inspired religious people to try to kill Paul. He was stoned, shipwrecked, and beaten. All of this was not to keep him from becoming too proud. It was to keep him from spreading the Word of God throughout the earth! If there is an assignment against you, you must dismiss it in Jesus' Name. You as a believer have authority over the enemy given to you by Jesus Himself!

Assignments Against Churches

Once a church begins to accomplish things for God, the enemy will work overtime to destroy it. I have seen countless churches where a spirit of strife has split the church. If that assignment doesn't work, Satan will send a devilish doctrine and bring error into the church. Or he'll tempt the pastor into sin and drag the church members down with him. We need to be alert to Satan's devices! Don't let these things in!

In Revelation 2, we see that God assigned an angel to each of the churches. Actually, the messages of these letters were given to the angel of the church as well as the body of believers.

If the church did not obey the message, the Spirit said, “I will remove thy candlestick out of his place.” I believe that the candlestick that would be removed out of its place is the church that was addressed! The church would lose its position and the angels would be assigned elsewhere. Many churches have already lost their angel because of disobedience!

If a church does not fulfill what God has called it to do, does it provoke its angel and lose its destiny in the kingdom of God? Many churches began with the blessing and anointing of the Spirit upon them, but they have now lost their place through disobedience. The church is now dead and dry, and it seems their angel has departed.

Economic Oppression and Manipulation

Just as there are demonic spirits who seek to oppress and possess individuals, there are other agents of darkness in the hierarchy of Satan who seek to control corporations, governments, and other organizations on all levels in an attempt to control a large part of this world's economic and political system.

Let's look at two passages. "But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore unto thy fathers, as it is this day." (Deuteronomy 8:18)

Who will help establish God's covenant in the earth? Is it not Christians through whom finances will flow to release God's Word through the airways of television, radio, internet and cellular networks? Right now, you are reading the printed page published through the donations of Christian partners and businesses!

Satan does not want Christians to have money because they will spend it and give it in ways that will support the establishment of God's kingdom. He can keep you financially oppressed and victimized if you believe his lies. But if a person or a corporation rises up and stakes their claim in the promise of God to prosper and bless, then finances flow to the kingdom of God. For this reason, whether you aspire to be wealthy or not, it is urgent that you demand Satan take his hands off your finances to release God's abundance.

His manipulation of the economic system of this world stops with you!

Right now, declare:

Satan, take your hands off my money. God supplies my needs and I have abundance to give according to Philippians 4:19. Take your hands off my family, off my city, and off my nation. I have authority in Jesus' name according to Luke 10:19.

Now stand on the Word and don't let him come back.

Walk with the believer's full authority in your life!

THE BATTLE IS MINE - THE VICTORY IS YOURS

Don't seek it in the realm of the natural, saith the Lord, because you see, you've sought it there for years. There's been despair and turmoil and fear, but now, you feel My presence near.

Begin to voice what My Word has said. You'll rise up and enter into a new life. You'll look around at some as though they were dead and say, "Why did I struggle in the pit of despair when the Word of God, it was there."

Walk not in defeat. Walk not in fear, but know that My power and My deliverance is near, even in thy mouth and in thy heart. So gird up the loins of your mind but don't fight nor struggle, neither walk in fear or despair. Lift up your eyes to the throne for I am there.

My wisdom shall flow and your strength shall grow. You'll walk out of defeat into victory. You'll look beyond the days that you suffered in the valley below, and you'll rejoice. You'll rejoice at the things you've learned, things you didn't know, because it'll release Me inside you.

So enter into a rest, into a rest, not the fight. Gird up your loins. Stand to your true height. I have spoken and My Word shall not return void. Because you see, the strength of My Word is what upholds the universe and all the laws there in.

So don't look back where you've been but look forward to that which shall be, for My strength and My wisdom you shall see. For the power of My Word shall go beyond what men have heard. Into the realm of the supernatural shall this generation see. For the angels of God shall enter into the earth and become very much involved in the things you shall see.

It will be profound even beyond what men have imagined. All of heaven waited for this hour when men shall release My creative power. For it shall be that the knowledge of the Lord shall rise in the land as a cloud that covers the sea and it shall flow as a river.

Some shall be swept away in it, fighting against what My Word has said. Others shall walk up on it. They'll climb as though it were a ladder a step at a time from one level of glory to another.

The church shall rise from defeat. The church shall walk on in the earth. The glory of the Lord shall be seen in the land. For you shall release My hand. The supernatural Ministry of angels shall be known abroad throughout the earth. The news media will catch it. It will become front page articles, and men shall know that My power and My ability I'm willing to bestow.

The earth shall gain knowledge it sought in the past. Many things that have been faith in days past shall become common knowledge in the end time.

But men shall walk on in their defeat and despair, even though the light of My Word is there. But don't be disillusioned by those who turn their back and walk in darkness, for you see, the children of darkness seek not the light. But they do desire to enter into the fight.

But don't walk in their way for as darkness grows darker in this earth, the light of My Word shall grow lighter. And the strength of that light shall be the thing that shall cause you to see.

But darkness, for the dark that the enemy has brought shall cause them to stumble and fall, for they can't see at all. As they looked upon the light they squinted their eyes, their eyes they did close.

So consider not and be not dismayed for those who have walked in their own ways. But continue on in My Word, for there shall come visions and revelations in the end time. Many, many, MANY visions and revelations shall there be. But stay close with My Word for it's in the Word you shall see.

There shall be counterfeits presenting themselves as angels of light trying to get you to enter into the fight, but walk not in that way for I'll reveal it in that day. You'll not be void of understanding; neither will you walk in despair. You'll walk in victory for I'll be there.

The church shall rise to walk in the earth in the latter days in greater power and manifestations of the Spirit than ever before. The earth shall tremble and the earth shall quake. For I shall shake all that can be shaken in the end time.

But My word will never fail. Standing on it you shall prevail. For the day is at hand that the church shall come in to its own. My Body shall rise and it shall be grown. It shall not walk in defeat or despair. But this Church will become a glorious Church without spot or wrinkle. For I'm coming for a Church that is walking in victory!

The Church and the Body shall grow together. So shall the unity come. But you'll see the world in its darkness split in every direction. In the end time it shall be that those of darkness the light they can't see. They won't be together in unity as they are now, but My Body shall come into unity and some shall say HOW. It shall be, by the supernatural love that shall flow in the earth.

All the children of darkness shall be scattered here and there. But the Body shall stand as one. So you see, the righteous shall inherit the earth because they shall walk as one.

Governments shall be changed. Nations of the world will stand in awe for My power shall be manifest, and you'll see it. You'll see it in the day which you live. For that day is at hand.

So lift up your voice and begin to proclaim throughout the land, that it is a glorious day, for the Word is alive! The Spirit of God will cause you not to strive but to walk in victory. So REJOICE! REJOICE! REJOICE! Learn to walk in victory! For the battle is Mine and the victory is yours!
