

Caribbean Set - Essences for Flow

The Caribbean Set was made off the coast of Honduras by extracting seawater from hollow areas in living sponges and corals, adding the samples to pure water and placing the mixtures under the waxing moon. The Caribbean essences provide energetic support for the lymphatic system and enhance flow through the energy body. Use this set as an energetic complement to any detox program.

Standard Dosage ~ 3 drops 3x/day in a small glass of water or under the tongue
