

Mateu Velasco

Fine Arts

Mateu Velasco is a Brazilian-American multi-media artist currently based in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He has a Master's and Bachelor's degree in Graphic Design from the Pontificia Universidade Catolica in Rio de Janeiro, where he graduated as a notable alumnus and celebrated figure in the street art scene. Though initially known for his inventive graffiti style, Velasco's paintings and illustrations have evolved beyond the tightening boundaries of the modern street art movement and into the dynamic domain of contemporary visual arts.

Recent Solo Exhibitions;

- "Spectrum Miami Art Show" | Spectrum Miami | Dec. 2017
- "Abrigo" | Galeria Movimento | 2013
- "Border Hop: Rio" | Printa Gallery (Budapest) | 2012
- "Aveso do avesso" | Galeria Movimento | 2012
- "Morphosis" | Galeria Movimento | 2011

Recent Group Exhibition:

- "Outsiders: From street to canvas" | Cass Contemporary | Florida 2014
- "ART RUA" | 2013
- "Pindorama" | Hellion Gallery | 2012
- "Multigrab" | Galpao das Artes Recicladadas | 2012
- "Fresh from Rio" | FB Gallery | NYC 2011
- "Multigrab" | Galpao das Artes Recicladadas | 2010

Links:

- Website: Mateu Velasco