SCS/HB 450 –[®]

This act allows the owner, operator, or employees of a restaurant bar to allow patrons to carry out unfinished bottles of wine. It is not unlawful under this act, for patrons to carry out wine if they ordered a meal, the bottles are at least partially consumed during the meal, the restaurant bar provides a dated receipt for the bottles, and the restaurant bar securely reseals the bottles and places them in sealed tamper-proof bags. Under this act, any person who transports unfinished bottles of wine will not be considered to have violated any law regarding open containers in vehicles.
