To Whom It May Concern,

Labour Behind the Label campaigns for garment workers rights worldwide. We work to improve conditions in the garment sector and empower the women who work in it.

Sabeena Ahmed is a long term supporter of Labour Behind the Label and has been active in many of our campaigns, particularly the 6 Items Challenge which raises funds for our campaigning work whilst challenging the notion of fast fashion which dominates the high street and impedes on garment workers rights due to the focus on profit.

Change in the garment industry is driven by action and the work of passionate individuals. We are very grateful for Sabeena's commitment to our work and we are excited to see her work grow in the United Arab Emirates. Sabeena's passion and enthusiasm for change is exciting and inspiring and we wish her every success in her work.

In solidarity,
