3. Can you use the old program materials with the new?

For the most part, yes. We understand that as you transition to the revised program materials you may need to use some of the old materials alongside the new. Below are some points to keep in mind where the materials will not align exactly.

- Student Workbooks: The content of the Student Workbook changed very little (less than 5%). If a class needs to use both old and new workbooks, the mix should not cause much confusion at all, but there will be a few places where the content is different:
 - » There are six different “Watch It!” questions (out of a total of 154 questions).
 - » The revised workbook includes a new “Kick-off Question” in each lesson to enable teachers to start class in a fun way.
 - » There is one different “Dive In” story (out of 23).
- Videos: While there are a lot of new animations and motion graphics, the actual content of the videos has changed very little (less than 5%).
 - » Many segments have been shortened, which was done by cutting non-catechetical content. Many video segments, for example, have been cut down from 7 or 8 minutes to 5 or 6 minutes. (Note there are three segments per lesson, so a typical lesson consists of 15-25 minutes of video.)
 - » In response to customer input, we re-filmed 5 segments (out of a total of 70) to provide a fresher, stronger presentation:

Segment	Lesson Title	Segment Title	Original Presenter	New Presenter
Lesson 6 Segment 2	Why Be Catholic?	Apostolic and Catholic	Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers	Fr. Josh Johnson
Lesson 13 Segment 3	What Does the Holy Spirit Do for Me?	The Twelve Fruits of the Holy Spirit	Chris Padgett	Fr. Josh Johnson
Lesson 20 Segment 1	What Would Jesus Do?	The Beatitudes	Mary Ann Wiesinger	Mari Pablo
Lesson 21 Segment 2	Do I Have What It Takes?	The Cardinal and Theological Virtues	Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers	Fr. Josh Johnson
Lesson 22 Segment 2	Why Wait?	Old Segment Title: Tough Questions About Chastity New Segment Title: Chosen and Created for Love	Jason Evert	Mari Pablo
