DESIGN

Spring Fever May means NYCxDesign, and that means the return of stellar product shows. We'll be stalking events across the Big Apple, on the hunt for fresh designs like Jamie Wolfond's General Bowl, which he'll present at WantedDesign.

ARCHITECTURE

Bay Station The horizontal lines of Weiss Architecture & Urbanism's boathouse and docking station in Parry Sound, Ontario, parallel the tranquil waters of its inlet home on Georgian Bay. This and more great architecture coming up in May.

INTERIORS

Critical Moss For this chic salon in Krakow, Poland, FAAB Architektura concocted a striking material palette of concrete, wood and vibrant green reindeer moss. It's just one of the interiors we'll feature online in the weeks to come.

CURIOSITY

Water Works Toronto's harbourfront will have three new residents, in the form of the Water Keepers, a sculpture by Jennifer Marman, Daniel Borins and James Khamsi. Log on for the full story after the official unveiling in May.
