YEAR IN REVIEW WRITING PROMPT

~ IF IT IS NOT WRITTEN DOWN, IT WILL NEVER HAPPEN ~

What important milestone/success/accomplishment for my kids did I experience this past year? (big or little - time to take a bow)

What did NOT work this past year that I LEARNED about myself or my kids? (this is something that taught me a valuable lesson)

What is holding me back?(got any negative self-talk, adult peer pressure, need for social proof, distractions, unrealistic goals, etc.??)Pick one thing you are willing to let go of in this new year!
