Isabela Captura Un Congo
by Keren Rowan

Isabela and her friend Daniel devise a plan to capture and train a howler monkey. When their antics cause a baby monkey to shock himself on an electrical wire and fall from a tree, Isabela and Daniel are in a race against the clock to try to save his life before it's too late. With only 350 words it tells a 3500-word story. Audiobook is included with each book.

Orion by Margarita Perez Garcia

Orion is a Rottweiler. He is loved by his family but misunderstood by many as being violent and aggressive. A massive storm hits and breaks the dam at the top of the village. The town is destroyed and a river of mud flows freely and violently, separating people from safety and their loved ones. Can Orion help bring them to safety? Inspired by true events, when a dam broke the state of Vargas, Venezuela, Orion is a story of hope, friendship, and survival against all odds. With fewer than 125 unique words and beautiful color art, this book is a highly engaging reader for any level one student.

El Callejón del Beso by Karen Rowan

El Callejón del Beso is a well-known legend from Guanajuato, México that took place in an alleyway that was so narrow that two people could stand on the balconies on either side and kiss. Don Luis and Doña Carmen meet and fall in love in Guanajuato, but their love is forbidden in the Mexico of 200 years ago. She is the daughter of a wealthy man and he is a miner in the silver mines. Will they find a way to run away together and marry?

En busca del monstruo by Pablo Ortega Lopez & Patricia Verano

There is a legend in the Patagonia area of Argentina that a monster lives in Lake Nahuel Huapi. The monster, known as the Nahuelito, is said to attack and destroy boats. Martin Sheffield, an American who actually lived in the vicinity in the first decades of the 20th century, is one of the people who supposedly saw it. His great granddaughter Sarah, a young woman in Vermont, has been interested in the legend since she was a child. A journalist from Vermont wants to investigate the legend and goes to Patagonia. The owner of the main newspaper in Patagonia is also interested in investigating the legend and invites Sarah to come and assist with the project. Martin's daughter still lives in the area unbeknownst to Sarah. The search for the Nahuelito is an adventure with a number surprising twists and turns. Most of the story is fiction that is based on a real legend. The Patagonian cultures of the past and the present play significant roles.

French books

Each Qui parle français? book contains ten one-page biographies in simple, accessible French. Meet authors, artists, ice skaters, psychologists, musicians, actors, champion athletes, novelists, fencers, oceanographers, chefs, poets, explorers, filmmakers, philosophers, feminists, painters and other fascinating French speakers from all over the francophone world. The illustrations are captivating and the representation of under-represented historical figures is unparalleled in content for French language learners. Our top pick based on student reviews.

Bon Anniversaire Le Match by A.C. Quintero

Étienne just can't get a break, even on his birthday! From the forgetful teacher in class to the bully that takes his lunch, he is at his wit's end. Although his day starts to brighten when his best friend and his love interest wish him "happy birthday," he is still subject to Robert's (the bully) attacks. However, a soccer match may set the record straight. Étienne has an uphill battle and must muster the courage to stand up for himself, even on his birthday. Will this be a breakthrough moment for Étienne, or will his fear hold him back?
