The good points...

This is an exciting Industry... it's fast paced and always changing. This is an equally exciting time for African Fashion on the global stage. AFRODESIAC WORLDWIDE offers the opportunity for advancement. As we grow, we want you to come along for the ride....

The finer details...

Expect to work a flexible schedule. No two days are ever the same and your location changes as you rack up frequent flyer and highway miles. You'll be expected to work on both weekdays and weekends. you'll be expected to reflect our values and style, particularly when selling our products, representing our brand at events, concerts, pop-up shops and when dealing with customers or meeting clients. This means wearing our brand at work....

AFRODESIAC WORLDWIDE

Brand Ambassador

You love our brand so the ability to sell and promote our products should be a snap

...and the bad

Competition can be fiercer than a model's signature stare, so you'll need plenty of work experience and a drive to beat the other candidates...just pretend you're on Africas Next Top Model and The Apprentice rolled into one.

Is there study involved?

A passion for fashion is as important formal qualifications. Although some general business experience (or a degree in something relevant like fashion) is a must. Enthusiasm for African fashion and a sincere interest in the job will just as likely impress us.

Previous work experience (either in retail or fashion) can also be incredibly useful sales, customer service and marketing. Must be Fully experienced in all MS packages, Word, Excel, Publisher & PowerPoint

Brand Manager

OK, I'm interested...But is it really the job for me?

Hate clothes shopping and always skip the fashion pages in magazines because you couldn't care less about the latest styles? Hate prints in your wardrobe...Then this isn't the job for you.

As well as an interest in African fashion and a stylish wardrobe, to be an AFRODESIAC WORLDWIDE Brand Ambassador it's a must you have the following skills:

- A team player attitude
- Love Traveling
- Good communication skills
- Love a fast paced environment
- Ability to remain calm and work under pressure
- Good at making decisions
- Love working outdoors ... You'll be attending lots of concerts and festivals
- Dependable
- Organised and practical

Brand Ambassador

You'll need bags of stamina as you'll be living a hectic and exciting life. Plenty of motivation and strong communications skills are a must have.

You also need to be:

- Happy to take on responsibility
- Approachable
- A good team leader
- Creative
- Works well independently
- Good at accounting and IT
- Flexible
