

Amani ya Juu Terms of Agreement for International Wholesale Customers

Thank you for your partnership and support of Amani ya Juu! Please find listed below the Amani ordering policies for non-US, International wholesale customers.

- An international order is an order placed outside of the United States. International Wholesale orders are processed through the Amani Wholesale website. To receive the password to access the Wholesale website, email: wholesale@amaniafrica.org
- The International Wholesale discount is 50%+ off of all products. All prices are non negotiable.
- The minimum wholesale order is $1,200 USD.
- You can expect your order to be stitched, shipped, and on your doorstep within three months. If an order is more than $7,000 the fulfillment period may be longer.
- If you would like to place a special order that requires the development of a new product or modification to an existing design, your request will be channeled to the administration for consideration. Please submit your request to wholesale@amaniafrica.org.
- A deposit of half of the total invoiced amount is required when the order is placed. Balance payment must be received before the order is released from the Amani warehouse. Use coupon code INTERNATIONAL at check-out to receive the International Wholesale rate (10% off of the US Wholesale rate). It also includes the 50% down payment at checkout and the remaining 50% will be processed once your products are ready to be picked up from our Kenya warehouse. Shipping arrangements must be made by International Wholesaler.
- Charges will be invoiced and processed by credit card or PayPal through the Chattanooga wholesale office.
- The wholesale buyer is responsible for arranging and paying for the shipping of their consignment. See Plan Freight Shipping Company.
- Amani ya Juu does not receive returned goods. However, in the case of damaged or defective goods, please contact wholesale@amaniafrica.org with photo proof of the damaged products and a reimbursement will be arranged.

Enjoy your beautiful Amani products and thank you for your support of Amani ya Juu!
