9. MAKE BEAUTY SUCCULENT SKIN GEL

When you've exposed your skin to harsh environmental elements for an entire weekend, the average body lotion isn't going to cut it. The antioxidants from the cactus amino acids in this lightweight, non-sticky gel calm inflammation, and its blend of healing herbs and prickly pear nourish and soothe skin from over-charred infrared exposure. Bonus: it's also spiked with aloe vera, which will cool down sunburns procured in California deserts.
