Jonah (Quit Your Belly Achin'!)

(Anna Laura Page/Jean Anne Shafferman)

The jazzy, finger-snapping opening of this fun to sing song about Jonah portends what's to come. Important themes include feeling sorry for yourself, trying to run away from God and responsibility, turning to God in times of distress, and repenting and receiving God's grace. Unforgettable!

Are You Good and Are You Strong?

(Jann Aldredge-Clanton/Larry E. Schultz)

This unique anthem seeks to express theodicy struggles as it presents honest questions asked by children of all ages to God during times of grief. The text provides an effective means of conversing with children and ministering to them in difficult situations. The theodicy questions conclude with the hopeful prayers that God would "keep us safely from all harm," and "rock us gently in Your arms."

The Inn Crowd

By Lee Dengler
and Susan Naus Dengler

The infamous census of the ages has made Bethlehem a busy and crowded spot, and there are some guests at a local inn who aren't very happy. F. W. Woolworth (a rich wool salesman), and Rock Starling (a hip star singer), among others, have made it clear they want no part of the "lower class" staying at the inn (or otherwise). By the end of this 20-minute, easy-to-prepare and present musical, we learn that Jesus came for everyone, and that because of Him, we're all included in God's Kingdom. For grades K-6.
