Welcome to the 2025 Jubilate Music Group Catalog of Publications!

This interactive publications catalog contains music from the following catalogs:

- Alfred Sacred
- Alfred Handbell
- Belwin Sacred
- Brodt Music
- Good Life Publications
- Gordon V. Thompson (sacred titles)
- H. W. Gray
- J. Fischer Bros. (sacred titles)
- Jubilate Music
- Paul A. Schmitt Music
- Warner Bros. Publications (sacred titles)

Click on any title in this catalog to view that product's page for a description, pricing, and ordering information.

While the publications in this catalog are organized into different categories, to search and locate pieces more specifically by season, occasion, and/or voicing, use the filter options on our website in each area of interest (choral, handbell, piano/organ, etc.).

NEW Publications and/or product components for 2025 are indicated with the inclusion of a cover image and the product description.

Digital (Downloadable) products are listed when the product is only available digitally. Therefore, when a product has both digital and physical versions, only the physical version is listed in this catalog. Click on the desired product title link in this catalog to take you to the product's page to show if any digital versions are available for that product.

We hope you will find this catalog a complete resource to assist you in your music planning.

The Calling

(Susan Naus Dengler/Lee Dengler)
Using the biblical verse of John 14:15 as its foundation ("If you love me, keep my commandments"), this heartfelt anthem is a call to spread light and love in the name of Jesus.
Warm and tender throughout, the anthem's text and music sustain an intimacy and calm that will comfort and inspire.

Come Now, Spirit of God (Tina English/Joseph M. Martin)
For Pentecost or any time during the year, this bestselling anthem is now available in SAB voicing. This offering is spirited while maintaining a sense of mystery and wonder. Some imitative interplay among voices leads to a hushed "alleluia" conclusion.

Creation's Dance
(Arranged by Benjamin Harlan)
Here's a lilting setting of a classic hymn text and tune. An energetic accompaniment underscores the smooth vocal scoring...while the text of praise will uplift and inspire. With primarily 2-part vocal writing, this selection can become an "instant anthem" that is ready to go all year long.

The King of Love My Shepherd Is (Music by Ryan Murphy/Words by Henry W. Baker)
As a paraphrase of Psalm 23, the beloved text by Henry Williams Baker was chosen by Ryan Murphy because of its broad appeal across religious traditions. This piece is versatile and appropriate as an anthem during any time of the liturgical year. The new SAB voicing makes this bestselling piece now available to a wide range of choirs.

Simple Gifts of Grace

(Tina English/Joseph M. Martin)
Gently woven into the fabric of this communion anthem is the beloved Shaker Melody 'Tis a Gift to Be Simple. An appropriate tone of supplication and unity is ever present in the text. The original music and Shaker Melody come together for a fitting conclusion to truly celebrate the feast and gifts of God's grace.

10,000 Reasons to Worship the King

(Arranged by Dennis Allen)

For those churches who have both a choir and praise team, the new Choir + Praise Series is a fresh new resource! The anthem can be performed with choir and praise team together, or separately.
Blending a classic hymn with a Jonas Myrin/Matt Redman modern classic praise song, Dennis Allen's arrangement is singable, playable, and outstanding!

A Tribute to the Armed Services (Medley)
Arr. Lloyd Larson
This best-selling anthem has become a staple in many repertoires!
A Tribute to the Armed Services is the original complete medley of official U.S. Military songs/hymns.
Using The Army Goes Rolling Along,
Marine Corps Hymn, Semper Paratus
(Coast Guard), Anchors Aweigh
(Navy) and The U.S. Air Force, Lloyd has created the ultimate hymn of patriotism and homage to our service men and women past and present. Incorporating America the Beautiful as the finale, this medley is ideal for any patriotic service, including Independence Day, Memorial Day, Veteran's Day, and civic/school programs. Available in a wide variety of voicings, making it accessible to all choirs. New

Here are two "instant anthems" with true substance! Appropriate for both church and school, these miniature anthems will infuse a classical touch to any service or concert. Infinitely singable while retaining their original integrity, The Heavens are Telling (Beethoven) and Come, Sing to the Lord (Bach) can be performed alone

Carry the Light of Love (Janet McMahan/Arranged by Jay Rouse) Perfect as a candlelight benediction or full anthem in the context of a Christmas service, this "sending forth" song encourages all who sing and hear it to indeed "carry the light of love" into the world, striving to reflect the Holy Child born long ago.
The mostly two-part vocal scoring makes this a singable repertoire addition that is also unforgettable.

Child of Hope, Child of Peace (Lloyd Larson)

This gentle lullaby sings of the coming of Christ in a lowly manger with appropriate awe, hope, and love. With the addition of the beloved carol Infant Holy, Infant Lowly (sung by an optional children's choir), this anthem is a warm and inviting offering perfect of Christmas Eve

Gospel Nativity Carol (Lee Dengler and Susan Naus Dengler)
With a light swing, this Christmas anthem announcing The Good News is pure fun! Syncopated rhythms bounce off each other between men and women mixed with rich harmonies creating a celebrative anthem. Blending in a touch of a familiar Christmas carol, this angelic proclamation is delightful.

(Chris Machen and Robert Sterling)
This song has become a modern classic! First released in 1989, this anthem proudly proclaims the brightly shining light of Christ born in a manger as the Son of God. Its triumphant message has resonated with choirs of all sizes and denominations around the world.
The new SAB voicing brings the anthem within the grasp of a variety of choirs.

Love, You Spoke a Word

(Ken Medema)
Incorporating the cherished carol What Child is This? this anthem's profound text tells the story of Christ's providential coming and His many symbolic roles as a light, a tree of respite, a river, and more.
With delicate weaving of text and tune plus solid arranging, the anthem concludes in forward hope:
"Love, come speak a word." The optional harp accompaniment (or Keyboard 2 reduction) will make the presentation sparkle.

O Come, Emmanuel

(Mary McDonald)
Opening with an optional duet, this offering from the inimitable Mary McDonald presents a song of pure longing for Emmauel's arrival. Building slowly and steadily, then tapering to a hushed conclusion, this anthem quietly soars. Pairing the gorgeous KINGSFOLD tune with a beloved Advent text is a creative and inspired pairing...resulting in an unforgettable Advent offering.

With Empty Hearts, We Wait

(Herb Frombach/Lee Dengler)
This stirring Advent anthem conveys a clear sense of waiting as we long for "endless peace" and "lasting love." The haunting repetition of a four-note motive, in both the vocal line and accompaniment, evokes a strong sense of time passing. Although it is scored for singable SAB voices, each voice carries its own melodic material, which combines to create a most engaging worship offering.

Christ Is Alive! (An Easter Introit)

(Hal H. Hopson)
The music of German composer Melchior Vulpus is brought to life in a vibrant setting by the master of accessible masterworks, Hal H. Hopson. The homophonic structure and well-crafted vocal scoring make this an easily prepared choice while flexible performance options (brass and/or voices) for the antiphonal element make this a creative Easter introit.

A Lenten Consecration

(Mary Kay Beall)
Beginning with a gently rocking accompaniment, the plaintive vocals soon join. The call/answer format along with singable two-part voicing make this tender Lenten anthem an easily prepared and presented selection. The anthem's simplicity is undergirded with a profound and moving message.

(John Purifoy)
John Purifoy's Palm Sunday anthem captures the majesty and energy of the triumphal entry. The exciting and percussive opening gives way to a rich and reverent chorale section. An immediate reprise of the opening theme then crescendos to a sweeping conclusion. Add the optional chamber orchestration for an unforgettable moment.

(Lloyd Larson)
Observe and remember Good Friday with this moving anthem that captures its somber mood. Blending new words and music with classic Lenten themes, this selection paints a vivid picture of Christ's sacrifice. The scripture passage of Isaiah 53:3-7 forms the basis for the moving text.

Missions

By My Power

(Esther Burroughs/Bob Burroughs) Opening with a sense of urgency, this anthem with a missions theme is challenging, exciting, and empowering. With a charge to "Go witness in your villages and towns..." and "Go into all the world" balanced with the promise of God's abiding presence and strength, this anthem is an offering of light and promise for an often dark world.

Celebrate the Child

Stan Pethel
A Christmas Musical
 If you're looking for an easily prepared musical treat for Christmas this year, Celebrate the Child is the answer! Created by the always creative yet practical Stan Pethel, the 2-part (opt. SATB) vocal scoring sings effortlessly. Classic contemporary songs such as Breath of Heaven (Amy Grant) and Gloria (Michael W.
 Smith) are masterfully blended with beloved carols and simple narration.
 It's a work perfect for small choirs, senior choirs, ensembles, or any choir desiring a simple (though not simplistic) yet highly effective Christmas presentation. 20 minutes.

Love Is Born Lloyd Larson
Celebrating the Mystery and Wonder of Christmas Love is Born draws a correlation between the Old Testament prophecies of anticipating and preparing for the promised Messiah and the New Testament fulfillment of those prophecies that still found the people of God amazed and surprised when Emmanuel did arrive. The fact that He arrived in such an unexpected manner merely enhances the mystery and wonder of Christ's birth. The cantata presents the four traditional themes of Advent to tell the Christmas story: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love. The work can be presented in different segments during Advent and Christmas, or as an entire cantata with narration. From the brisk, exciting instrumental prelude to the powerful conclusion, here is a work that is as beautiful as it is unforgettable. 35 minutes.

Calvary's Lamb Mary McDonald

A Song, A Sacrifice, A Savior
 The Passion story is told with consummate words and music from the always creative Mary McDonald in Calvary's Lamb. Walk the streets of Jerusalem in the spirited Palm Sunday opening to the Upper Room, the Garden of Gethsemane, and finally the hill of Golgotha. The closing anthem soars with the hope of the pending resurrection. Each anthem can be performed separately during Lent and Holy Week, or together as a 30-minute cantata with narration. Easily prepared and presented, yet an enduring and memorable presentation.

Parables & Promises

By Janet McMahan
Arranged by Vicki Hancock Wright Anthems with Resources for Children
Some of the most beloved parables and promises found in the Old and New Testament form the foundation of this new five-song collection for children's voices. From the mustard seed to the prodigal son and rainbows, children will sing and learn about enduring biblical truths that never grow old. Teaching tips and activities are included for each song making this collection invaluable and enhancing success. From the highly creative and veteran children's writing team of Janet McMahan and Vicki Hancock Wright.

Alleluia, Amen!

(Vicki Hancock Wright)
Alleluia, Amen! is an energetic setting of a familiar hymn appropriate for children's voices. It is a call for all to praise God and can be used at various times throughout the church year. Though it can be done completely in unison, there is an optional descant/response part that will provide an extra challenge for your more experienced singers.

Angels Are Singing, Heaven is Ringing!

(Lloyd Larson)
Two traditional melodies come together for this joyful offering! Upper elementary singers will enjoy the option of partnering the two melodies to create a pleasing part-singing experience. This is a children's adaptation of a piece from the Christmas cantata Love Is Born by Lloyd Larson. If your adults are presenting the cantata, have your children's choir sing this version a week or so before the presentation. You can then have the children join with the adults on the anthem in the cantata. This offers multi use of this multi-generational gem.

Christmas Cradlesong

(Terry Taylor)
This story-song presents a gentle retelling of the nativity of Jesus wrapped in a beautiful unison melody. It will live in the hearts and minds of young singers (and listeners) long after the performance. There is a simple handbell part to add a bit of harmonic interest to the unison line. This will work as a stand-alone anthem or could be incorporated into a Christmas pageant, service of lessons and carols, or any worship service of the Christmas season.

Give of Your Best

(Vicki Hancock Wright)
A classic hymn text takes on a new shine with Vicki Hancock Wright's captivating new music and flowing accompaniment. The lilting, seamless melody is tuneful and memorable...helping children internalize the message to truly give of their best to God's highest for their lives.

Hallelu! He Lives!

(Ruth Elaine Schram)
Here's a joyous, energetic praise anthem celebrating the resurrection. This partner song pairs the traditional chorus Hallelu, Hallelu with a simple complementary vocal line that creates an accessible part-singing experience for even younger elementary singers. Invite parents or possibly grandparents and other relatives to rehearse and sing with the children for an intergenerational worship moment.

If We Knew When

(Ruth Elaine Schram)

This offering presents a humble and beautiful message of preparation for the coming of the Christ Child.

"If we knew when, if we knew where...we would be ready, we would be prepared!" The Advent themes of preparation and anticipation are clearly present in the lovely text. Add the optional flute obbligato to enrich the moment.

Joyfully Sing! (Allen Pote)

Seasoned composer Allen Pote has created a bright and lovely celebration of praise and thanksgiving to God for God's gift of creation. The closing text reminds us that we are indeed all God's children. It can be sung completely in unison, but the harmonized ending will be an exciting conclusion to the piece. Add the flute for an extra glow. Truly delightful!

Lord, I Thank You

(Dennis and Nan Allen)

Here's a lovely prayer anthem with lyrics expressing thanksgiving to God from a child's point of view. Though perfect for the Thanksgiving season, it would be appropriate for other occasions throughout the year. The gentle syncopations give it a light contemporary touch. It can be sung as unison or optional 2-part.

Be Thou My Vision

Folk Songs and Hymns for the Church Pianist

Arr. Anna Laura Page

This rich collection of folk songs and hymns has been thoughtfully and carefully curated and arranged by the seasoned and always creative Anna Laura Page. Drawing from a wealth of material, this collection presents ten settings that offer new perspectives on classic tunes. Different parts of the church year are covered with appropriate selections. Included are Ride On, King Jesus; What Wondrous Love is This; Be Thou My Vision; Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley; He Never Said a Mumbalin' Word; Flow Gently, Sweet Afton; What Child is This?; We Gather Together; and more.

Curry & Jazz

Piano Hymn Settings with a Blues Touch

Arr. Craig Curry

In addition to his work in many musical genres, Craig Curry has forged a name for himself as a respected sacred jazz arranger. In Curry & Jazz, Craig again returns to the medium of jazz putting his unique touch on a variety of beloved hymns with just the right seasoning of blues, while remaining respectful to the original source material. Titles include A Mighty Fortress; Be Thou My Vision; Come Thou Fount; Leaning on the Everlasting Arms; Great is Thy Faithfulness; and more!

Seasons of the Soul

Intros, Interludes, and Coda's for Solo Piano

Arr. Lloyd Larson

From the pen of Lloyd Larson comes this versatile and highly useful piano collection. These "all year long songs" cover the gamut of the church year: Advent, Christmas, Lent/Holy Week, Palm Sunday, Lent, Easter, Pentecost, and Thanksgiving. Through the format of brief intros, interludes, and postludes ("codas"), these tasteful hymn and carol arrangements can be played with minimal rehearsal. And thanks to Lloyd's careful and consistent craftsmanship, each setting is a winner. This is a book that will become a treasured addition to your repertoire which you'll use time after time!

50 Hymn Trios for Organ

Volume 2 Arr. Wolfgang Rübsam
Volume Two of this book again brings short trios designed to be performed as hymn introductions, short preludes or brief hymn meditations. They are highly accessible (almost sight-readable) and extremely flexible, and will prove a welcome addition to the library of organists with limited practice time. This amazing collection contains trios based on 50 familiar hymn tunes. Rübsam's trios are scored for a two-manual instrument, making them accessible to the majority of organists. In short, this collection of 50 Hymn Trios for Organ is easily accessible, extremely versatile, and will be a welcome addition to any organist's library!

Four Organ Settings for Advent

Arr. Howard Helvey
Howard Helvey has created four exquisite settings of wonderful Advent selections for organ. Beautifully capturing the mystery and wonder of Advent, the book contains Intrada on "Conditio alme siderum" (Creator of the Stars of Night); Prelude on "Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland" (Savior of the Nations, Come); Meditation on "Es ist ein Ros" (Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming) and Flourish on an English Carol (Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day). This will be a special treat for the player and all to experience during the holy season of Advent.

A Tribute to the Armed Services (Medley)

Arr. Lloyd Larson
This best-selling anthem has become a staple in many repertoires! A Tribute to the Armed Services is the original complete medley of official U.S. Military songs/hymns. Using The Army Goes Rolling Along, Marine Corps Hymn, Semper Paratus (Coast Guard), Anchors Aweigh (Navy) and The U.S. Air Force, Lloyd has created the ultimate hymn of patriotism and homage to our service men and women past and present. Incorporates America the Beautiful as the finale.
