THE DRINK: AJIRI TEA

Come 11 o'clock, when breakfast is a distant memory and we pine for lunch, we must have tea. And here at Bazaar we are all enjoying the deep brew of Ajiri tea grown in the Kisii highlands of Kenya. We also love the care that's gone into each teabag - charmingly adorned with twine made from dried banana bark and beads handcrafted from recycled magazines by the women of Kisii. All profits go towards sustaining the education of orphans.

Ajiri Tea, £7.50, available at Harvey Nichols
