

Promptly Journals, LLC MAP

Promptly Journals has designated ecommerce marketplaces in which a retailer acts as a third-party seller, including Amazon, eBay, Etsy, Facebook services, Google services, Staples and Walmart, as restricted sales channels, whether for customer order fulfillment by the marketplace operator (e.g. Fulfillment by Amazon) or the seller (e.g. in the Amazon Marketplace, Fulfillment by Merchant). An authorized Promptly Journals retailer's failure to comply with this restriction will result in account suspension.

When selling on its own website, an authorized retailer of Promptly Journals is required to advertise products at or above Promptly Journals designated suggested retail price. Failure to comply with this minimum advertised price (MAP) policy will result in account suspension.

Promptly Journals maintains a network of partners and operates software to track retailers' compliance with its policies. If you observe a policy violation, please report it to our B2B Team at sales@ascendantbrands.com
