

MaDonna: Eco-Friendly Wedding Rings that Sparkle with Conflict-Free Goodness!

Posted on June 21, 2010 by Heather Tiegan in Eco-Friendly bridal jewelry, Green Wedding Ideas

Custom Heart Shape Engagement Ring

When I discovered MaDonna & Company, I was thrilled to learn of a diamond alternative that provides natural-looking brilliance for a simply beautiful wedding ring. And best of all, its 100% conflict-free and doesn't take away from the earth's natural resources.

Hand-crafted in the USA with recycled gold and simulated diamonds, MaDonna's conflict free engagement rings and eco-friendly wedding ring sets provide an affordable, beautiful and ethical alternative for today's eco-conscious couples.

The Oriana

The Megan

The MaDonna Hybrid Diamond®: Mother Nature's Best Friend
 MaDonna's Simulated Diamond Hybrid® is a spectacular man-made diamond alternative that provides natural-looking brilliance for a simply beautiful wedding ring. And best of all, its 100% conflict-free and doesn't take away from the earth's natural resources.

Interlocking Facet: Each one carat MaDonna Diamond Hybrid® sold in place of an earth-mined equivalent prevents up to 250 tons of ore being extracted from the earth.

The Kater

Shining a Green Light on Wedding Jewelry
 MaDonna lives by a set of green principles that are impressive and inspiring for couples seeking an ethical and eco-friendly alternative for their wedding jewelry.

Below are just some highlights... read their full green commitment here.

- Every setting is created using recycled solid 14K and 18K gold, Pure 950 palladium or Pure 950 Platinum which reduces the harmful effects associated in the mining of these natural resources
- Uses eco-friendly packaging – paperless gift bags
- Offices are 95% effective in reusing, recycling and minimizing the potential power and natural resources a traditional office would use (head office is powered by wind energy)
- Recycles the water used in production of the jewelry
- Contributes to carbon offset shipping program, which means every order they ship helps to reseed forests

There's more! MaDonna also created a foundation called "The Greener Diamond" that works with humanitarian organizations and celebrities to help communities that have been devastated by the unethical harvesting of precious natural resources.

Doesn't it make sense to celebrate the start of your life together with an engagement and wedding ring set that not only symbolizes your eternal love, but also a safer, greener, better world?

Brilliant, indeed!