

WHAT TO DO, AND LOOK FOR, IN MAINE THIS SEASON

The Guide

Top Brass
Elevate your holiday baking with brass-finished stainless-steel measuring cups in mod, spoon-like shapes. $48/4-piece set. blancheandmimi.com

1

1. These 14-karat-gold-plated Italian scissors look sharp in a desk or crafting table caddy. $30-$46. blancheandmimi.com 2. Style is in Uashmama's washable Metallic Platino paper bag, ideal as a catchall or plant pot. $16. minkahome.com 3. Raise your glasses (or play tic-tac-toe) on fruitsuper's sleek Lift coasters, $68 for 4. urban-dwell.com 4. Honeycomb Studio's porcelain-and-22-karat-gold Minimalist jewelry dish lets your baubles shine. $16. becomingjewelry.com 5. Visual Comfort & Co.'s gilded-iron Studio Martini table provides a sculptural cocktail perch. $385. fogglighting.com 6. Inspired by experiments plunging lit bulbs into paint, Marset's Dipping Light offers a colorful take on mood lighting. $295. chiltons.com 7. Boho meets metallic on John Robshaw's Moheti Euro pillow — a showstopper on any sofa. $175. margomoore.com

2

3

6

5

4

7

RYAN DAVID BROWN (SCISSORS)

FINDS
Guilty Pleasures

Warm metallics are going the distance as darlings of the design world — and are perfect complements to shimmery holiday décor

By Jen DeRose