

1.75"

THE ENFORCER BELT

When you need a little more width in a leather holster belt, the Hanks Enforcer Belt, at 1.75", is just the ticket. Popular among LEO'S, the 1 3/4" wide CCW Gun belt is perfect for when you need a wider belt.

This width still fits through jean loops without a problem and gives you the extra size and durability you're looking for.

We had quite a few requests for a belt in the 1 3/4" width so we added it in. Made with the same quality leather as all our concealed carry belts this will give you years of durable use.

The heavy-duty roller buckle makes cinching this belt a breeze and it won't come apart even under tough use. The buckle is secured with Chicago screws and not snaps. This makes the buckle easily swapped out and is more durable than snaps which will wear out over time.

When a 1 1/2" wide belt is not quite wide enough and the 2" wide belt is a bit too much, this one will fill that void perfectly.
