A thin body with a soft white colour

Allure Schönwald

ALLURE owes its extraordinary finesse to the innovative porcelain, 'Noble China'. The thin body and soft white colour of this hard porcelain accentuates the collection's sublime elegance. The faceted, clean lines not only brings an urban elegance to the table but its body men composition, which is fired at more than 1400°C, makes 'Noble China' very durable in the daily demands of a restaurant.

Hygge Schönwald

HYGGE epitomises the Danish art of living. SCHÖNWALD has translated this concept into an entire spectrum of cheerful patterns in shades of blue with a trendy hand-made look. The seven different styles look as if they have been casually painted on the porcelain – a rustic painting technique that lends them inchoate charm.

Shiro Schönwald

Minimalist, pure and clean-lined - SHIRO makes a clear design statement. The striking collection of coupe items melts Scandinavian solidity with Japanese gracefulness. In doing so the unusually sturdy edge of the porcelain items brings a new, surprisingly powerful aesthetic to the table. Designed by Stefan Diez and Andrea Lenardin, two of today's hottest industrial designers.

CASUAL FOOD PRESENTATION

Presenting food in a deliberately casual way is becoming increasingly popular with restaurants across the board - from rustic pubs to high-end restaurants. SHIRO provides a suitable setting for this trend: the simple bowls in four sizes are the perfect vessels for modern food formats.

SIGNATURE simply offers a novel interpretation of traditional shapes and gives them unusual roles. Bowls are transformed into a spoon with sweeping curves that serves as a saucière, bowl for starters or dessert plate. Plates no longer have the usual round shape and set new trends with soft oval lines or take on a rectangular form with inviting separate terraced sections. Even if the imagination is still running wild – the design remains clear and never comes across as playful.
