Reading, Reporting and Memorization Agreement

WHEREAS, reading, reporting and memorization increases a person's storehouse of knowledge, increases the ability to learn, helps develop leadership characteristics, and helps to master the problems of life;

AND WHEREAS, reading, reporting and memorization are enjoyable exercises, helping develop an understanding of people, places and events, and broadens one's ability to place historical events in proper perspective;

BE IT THEREFORE AGREED: _____ hereby (Name of Tremendous Adult)

agrees to REWARD _____ for each approved book read.
(Name of Tremendous Reader)

These books are to be historical fiction, autobiographical, motivational, inspirational, poetic or biographical books from our own library or from outside sources.

All applicable books will be divided into two categories, ten dollar books and one dollar books. For any ten dollar book, the reader will receive one dollar to spend, one dollar to tithe and eight dollars to invest in a savings fund. The one dollar books will earn the reader fifty cents to spend, ten cents to tithe and forty cents to invest. The reader agrees to read each book completely and write a book report.

Under the memorization program, ten dollars will be paid for each chapter of scripture or approved historical speech, document or poem that is memorized. Under the memorization program, five dollars will be invested, four dollars given for spending money and one dollar will be for tithe.

THIS AGREEMENT will remain in effect until the reader reaches his/her sixteenth birthday, or until cancelled by either party.
