

Jane Clarke BSc (Hons)
SRD Dietitian & Nutritionist

CONDITIONS AND FEES

All appointments are confirmed at time of booking and a 48-hour cancellation policy applies. If the cancellation is made later than this time, the full fee will remain outstanding.

Telephone, FaceTime, Skype consultations as well as private home and hospital visits are also offered if you are unable to come into the practice.

Please note that when the consultation fee is to be claimed through health insurance, it is the patient's responsibility to ensure the consultation is covered/authorised beforehand and that the fee will be settled with the practice and a refund obtained from the insurance company by the patient, if appropriate. Please discuss with the admin staff if there are any queries.

FEES

The first two consultations, which last up to 30 minutes each, cost between £200 - £250 each. Follow up consultations may be long and are charged at the same rate.

Short follow ups, which last up to 15 minutes each, cost from £150 each.

Longer appointments can be arranged for overseas patients, with prior discussion, whereupon the individual session rate will be agreed beforehand.

Home and hospital visits are billed on an individual and hourly basis and include travel time and expenses.

Please contact 079 671 255 87 should more information be required.