So on to the legal stuff. To be honest I don't really care I just want it to be fair. I put a lot of work in to making this font and a little money would be nice. If you're using this font to make some shirts for your b-boy crew or some flyers or whatever you don't even need to worry about this.

This just protects me from some guy using the font to make a bunch of felt letters and making tens of thousands of dollars on my design selling those felt letters without paying me properly.

I offer this font at two price points. Personal and Commercial. Personal is if you're making things for you and your friends and you aren't going to be selling what you are making for profit. Commercial is if you're making something to sell. Both are super affordable so be honest! That being said If you're an art director and you use this for some huge project and have the budget... PayPal me some cash at the email below and put it in your font budget.

Otherwise just enjoy... but seriously the below is a legal binding contract... that I copied from another font distributor so I know it's legit.

If you want to send me a copy (or a picture) of whatever you make with this font please contact me at the email below
