

Rolling Stone

rollingstone.com
Issue 968 >> February 24, 2005 >> $3.95

PILL CITY

A Drug Bazaar
Over the Border

ALICIA KEYS

Grammy's
Golden Girl Talks

JOHNNY CARSON

The Classic
RS Interview

BEST MUSIC

GREEN DAY

How did the formerly boogerobsessed punks grow up to make a rock opera that takes on George Bush? They hit the sauce and followed the road of excess all the way to the top of the charts

Green Day

and the Palace of Wisdom

By Matt
Hendrickson Photograph
by James Dimmock

Triumph of the green:
Tré Cool, Mike Dirnt
and Billie Joe Armstrong (from left)