HEAD OF THE CLASS

Dansk flatware and the Palm-Pilot stylus are examples of “the possible outcomes of a RISD education,” says Matthew Bird, director of a new store that sells products by Rhode Island School of Design alumni and faculty. Bird shows works by unknown and established artists, and supplies a bio with each purchase, whether it’s a bracelet by Leanne Herreid (above) or a Nicole Miller travel umbrella. RISD WORKS, 10 Westminster St., Providence, R.I.; 401/277-4949; www.risdworks.com.
