VERSATILITY

Our hats are lightweight, breathable, unique, stretchable and provide absolute comfort as much on a cool night camping in the summer as on a snowshoe walk in the winter!

They are available in sizes for adults and children (Grow-With-Me beanie).

THE PERFECT GROW-WITH-ME BEANIE

LIGHT • BREATHABLE • COMFORTABLE

Thanks to their light weight polyester exterior and bamboo lining, these beanies allow the head to breathe and the excess moisture to be absorbed.

These stretchy materials are also what allows the beanies to shape around your child's growing head. Once the beanies are fully fitted, they can easily be worn under a helmet!

ANKHONE

Early 90s, Ankhone started doing graffiti on the walls of his native city, Grenoble. His passion led him to the benches of the École Supérieure d'Arts Appliqués de Troyes, Mastering these institutional techniques, he gradually transposed his pictorial and graphic work to painting, without ever breaking away from graffiti culture. Since 2013, Ankhone lives and works in Quebec. You can admire his murals on the walls of Grenoble, Montreal, Miami, Los Angeles and many more cities around the world.

Catherine Parent

CATHERINE PARENT

It was in 2006 that Catherine embarked on the exploration of abstract art. Inspired by nature, this self-taught artist aims to create art accessible to all.

In her creative process, it is not uncommon for her to use “out of the box” tools to paint differently. The fluidity in his gesture of painting, the transparent overlays, the texture of the spatulas and the natural colours are at the centre of his signature.

ELISE CHARETTE

Visual artist and visual arts teacher for adolescents, a mother of two young children, and the founder of Lalita's Art Shop, Elise is a passionate individual. She has always aspired to make art accessible to all. For her, art goes beyond being a visual stimulus; it is a reflection of our reality, a tool to awaken our thinking and sharpen our critical senses. Her mission is to infuse art into every aspect of daily life, presenting a more creative, thoughtful, and symbolic imagery.

Mégane Fortin

MÉGANE FORTIN

Mégane Fortin, an 11-year-old painter. Born in Quebec City in 2007, Meg began her artistic adventure at the age of 7 with the artist Maurice Louis, with whom she developed a passion for abstraction.

Since 2017, the City of Stoneham-and-Tewkesbury child prodigy exhibits her work in various exhibitions that revealed the young artist to the Canadian public, but also to be discovered by galleries and collectors of the United States and Europe. In 2018 she became a member of ArtZoom International Artists Collective (CIAAZ), which will allow her work to travel to Miami, Los Angeles, Las Vegas and San Francisco.
