Mother-in-Law's Kimchi

Lauryn Chun is so passionate about kimchi, she has written an entire cookbook devoted to the fermented Korean staple. Chun founded Mother-in-Law's Kimchi using a recipe from her family's California restaurant, and she continues to hand-cut the vegetables that go in it. The brand also has a line of gochujang, a versatile fermented chile paste that can be used as a marinade or dip.

Buy: House Napa Cabbage Kimchi, $51 for six 16-ounce jars at Mother-in-Law's Kimchi
