Jump forward...

Jump backward...

T | Choosy Size Me

It seems every day there are choices to make so many different roads you can take. Sometimes it's tough but I just think ahead of who I want to grow up to be. I've got to keep moving so I grow up strong. If I eat the right foods then I can't go wrong. I'm just a kid now, but it won't be long until I'm a bigger taller version of me.

(Chorus)

So I've just got to use my head when somebody comes up to me and says, 'Would you like a burger and fries?' Tack on a few extra sides? A jumbo size soda to wash it all down? Is that how you want to be? (Is that how you want to be?) Let your brain just waste away sitting home watching TV all day? No thanks. I will just Choosy size me! Just Choosy size me!

Instead of sitting still, I'm going to exercise. Instead of pigging out, I'll keep it Choosy size. I'll be smart now because I realize one day I'm going to thank myself. Treat my body well and work out my heart. Challenge my mind so I can always stay smart. I love a lot of things but there's nothing else, more important than my health.

(Chorus)

Would you like a burger and fries? Tack on a few extra sides? A jumbo size soda to wash it all down? Is that how you want to be? Let your brain just waste away sitting home watching TV all day? No thanks. I will just Choosy size me!

(Would you like a burger and fries?' Tack on a few extra sides? A jumbo size soda to wash it all down? Is that how you want to be?) Just Choosy size me!

(Let your brain just waste away sitting home watching TV all day) No thanks. I will just Choosy size me! (Ooh...)

Just Choosy size me! (Ooh...)
Just Choosy size me!
