      3. The Eucharist: Jesus’ “Gave Thanks” (eucharisteo) (John 6:11; Matt 26:27)

The Eucharist as a Sacrifice and Memorial
1. The Eucharist is the Sacrifice of Christ:
   a. It is a memorial (Gk anamnesis) of Christ’s Passover (CCC 1362-66)
      1. Jewish Passover: Not merely a recollection of past events (Exod 12:14)
      2. A making present of these past events (see Exod 13:18)
   b. The Eucharist re-presents (makes present) the Sacrifice of the Cross (CCC 1366)
   c. The Eucharist and Christ’s Sacrifice are one single sacrifice (CCC 1367)
2. The Eucharist is also the Sacrifice of the whole Church:
   a. The Church participates in the Sacrifice of Christ (CCC 1368)
   b. Offered in communion with the Church Triumphant (CCC 1370)
   c. Offered for the Church Suffering (CCC 1371)
   d. St. Augustine: complete participation in Christ’s Sacrifice (CCC 1372)

Break

Objections to the Mass as a Sacrifice
1. Martin Luther: German Augustinian Monk (ca. 1530) (O’Connor, 140-41)
   a. The Mass has been made into a “good work”
   b. The Mass is “a promise and not a sacrifice”
   c. The Sacrifice of the Mass “an abomination” meriting hell-fire!
   d. The Crux: Participation, “Faith alone,” and Post-Baptismal Sin
2. John Calvin: aspiring monk turned reformer (ca. 1560) (O’Connor, 149)
   a. Devil deceived the world into thinking Mass a sacrifice
   b. Church Fathers: too “Jewish” in calling Mass a sacrifice!
3. Anglican 39 Articles: Church of England, founded by Henry VIII (1553)
   a. View of Mass as Sacrifice: “Blasphemous imaginings” (O’Connor, 152)
4. Modern Objections
   a. God is not a “God of Vengeance” who Demands Sacrifice
   b. Loss of Understanding of “Sacrifice” and awareness of Sin

Thursday Afternoon: Session 6 (Continued)

Response to Objections: Scripture, Tradition, Magisterium

1. Ancient Church Fathers referred to Mass as Sacrifice
   a. St. Ignatius of Antioch (110 A.D.)
      1. Letter to the Philadelphians 4
      2. Eucharistic “altar of sacrifice” (O’Connor, 17)
   b. St. Justin Martyr (ca. 150 A.D.)
      1. Dialogue with Trypho the Jew 41
      2. Gentile Sacrifice of Malachi 1:11 fulfilled in Eucharist (O’Connor 21-22)
   c. St. Cyril of Jerusalem (ca. 400 A.D.)
      a. Mystagogic Catechesis 5.7-8
      b. Mass offered as a sacrifice for the Dead (O’Connor, 31; cf. 2 Macc 12:39-45)

2. The Council of Trent on the Eucharist as a Sacrifice (ca. 1550 A.D.)
   a. Views Under Discussion (O’Connor, 230-31)
      1. Mass is not a sacrificed but only a commemoration
      2. Mass was not instituted by Christ but is a man-made idolatry
      3. Mass as sacrifice is blasphemous; Christ did not ordain apostles to offer the sacrifice of the Mass
      4. The Mass is of no value as a sacrifice for the living and the dead; it cannot be applied to sins
   b. All of these views condemned as heretical (O’Connor, 232)
   c. Council Decree on the Eucharist as a Sacrifice (1562) (O’Connor, 233-5)
      1. Jesus a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek (Heb 7:24-27)
      2. Bloody Sacrifice of Cross “represented” until end of the world
      4. Eucharist was “the New Passover”
      5. Eucharist is the “clean oblation” offered among Gentiles (Mal 1:11)
      6. St. Paul speaks of the “altar” of the Eucharist (1 Cor 10:21)
      7. The offering is one and the same as the Cross and thus propitiatory

3. Other Arguments from Scripture
   a. Christ in Heaven is a “Lamb, standing as though Slain” (Rev 5:6)
   b. Christ is High Priest Now Offering Himself in Heaven
      1. He has a sacrifice to offer: himself (Heb 8:1-5)
      2. Blood of Christ offered in Heavenly Tabernacle (Heb 9:11-13)
      3. An Offering “Once and for all time” (Heb 9:23-28; 10:11-18)
   c. Mass as Participation in the Heavenly Sacrifice (Heb 12:18-24; 13:8-10)
The Sacramental Sacrifice (Cont’d):
Thanksgiving, Memorial, Presence (CCC 1373-77)
(Friday Morning: Session 7)

The Doctrines of the Real Presence and Transubstantiation
1. What does the Church Teach? Two Doctrines (cf. O’Connor, 222)
2. The Real Presence: Who and What is Present (CCC 1373-74)
   a. Christ’s Presence in the Eucharist is Unique
   b. The Whole Christ is present: “Body, Blood, Soul, Divinity” (CCC 1374)
   c. A Substantial Presence: “Truly, Really, Substantially Contained”
3. Transubstantiation: How this Presence comes about (CCC 1375-77)
   a. The “conversion” of Bread and Wine into Christ’s Body and Blood (CCC 1375)
   b. Transubstantiation: No More Bread and Wine (CCC 1376)
   c. A Permanent Change: as long as the Eucharistic Species Subsist (CCC 1377)

Objections to the Real Presence and Transubstantiation: 3 Theories
1. Symbolic Presence: the Eucharist is nothing but a memorial, purely symbolic
   a. The early Gnostics (ca. 110 and 180 A.D.):
      1. Denial that the Eucharist is “the flesh of Christ (O’Connor, 15)
      2. Denial of Resurrection of the Body (O’Connor, 22)
      3. The Eucharist and the Resurrection (O’Connor, 24)
   b. Berengarius of Tours: Archdeacon in France (1054 A.D.) (O’Connor, 100-101)
      1. They are the Body and Blood “for faith and understanding”
      2. The Bread and Wine Remain: the change is “intellectual”
   c. Ulrich Zwingli: former Swiss priest (1523 A.D.)
      1. “Nothing but a commemoration” (O’Connor, 143)
      2. John 6:63 proves symbolic interpretation (O’Connor, 143-44)
   d. Modern Period: Baptists, many non-denominational Protestants
2. Spiritual Presence: Christ’s spirit (not body) is present in the Eucharist
   a. John Calvin: aspiring monk turned reformer (1560 A.D.)
      1. Eucharist is like Baptism: the water is not changed (O’Connor, 147)
      2. Spiritual Presence of Risen Christ: “Spirit alone” (O’Connor, 148)
   b. Anglican Church:
      1. Truly a “communion” of Body and Blood of Christ
      2. Present only in “a heavenly and spiritual sense” (O’Connor, 151)
   c. Modern Period:
      1. Many non-denominational Protestants
      2. Modernist Catholics: condemned by Pius XII (O’Connor, 255)
3. Consubstantiation: Christ’s Body and Blood exist alongside the bread and wine
   a. Martin Luther and Lutherans:
      1. Strongly rejected symbolic view of Zwingli (“the prince of hell’s poison”)
      2. Real Presence, but bread and wine remain

Mary, Ark of the New Covenant

When the prophet Jeremiah hid the Ark of the Covenant, he said:

“The place [of the Ark] shall be unknown until God gathers his people again and shows his mercy. And then the Lord will disclose these things, and the glory of the Lord and the cloud will appear, as they were shown in the case of Moses...” (2 Maccabees 2:7-8)

Mary’s Magnificat

“My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my savior...
He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and his posterity forever.” (Luke 1:46-55)
