Mary, the Ark of the New Covenant

Where is the Lost Ark of the Covenant?

It was also in the writing that the prophet, having received an oracle, ordered that the tabernacle and the ark should follow with him, and that he went out to the mountain where Moses had gone up and had seen the inheritance of God. And Jeremiah came and found a cave, and he brought there the tent and the ark and the altar of incense, and he sealed up the entrance. Some of those who followed him came up to mark the way, but could not find it. When Jeremiah learned of it, he rebuked them and declared: “The place shall be unknown until God gathers his people together again and shows his mercy. And then the Lord will disclose these things, and the glory of the Lord and the cloud will appear, as they were shown in the case of Moses, and as Solomon asked that the place should be specially consecrated.” (2 Maccabees 2:4-8)

The Incarnation and the Virginity of Mary Revisited (Matthew 1)

1. Conception of Jesus: during “betrothal,” before they “came together” (Matt 1:18)
   a. Joseph’s Freedom to Divorce in Old Covenant (see Deut 24:1-2)
   b. Obligation to have an adulteress stoned to death (Deut 22:23-24)
   c. Joseph’s Dream: the child is “conceived of the Holy Spirit” (Matt 1:20)

2. Fulfillment of Prophecy: “A Virgin (parthenos) shall conceive” (Isaiah 7:14)

3. Virginal Conception: neither “legend” nor “myth” (CCC 498)

      (Elizabeth, in Luke 1:42)
   c. “Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the our of our

2. Old Testament “Queen Mother” (gebirah) second only to King; royal intercessor So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her, and bowed down to her; then he sat on his throne and had a throne brought for the king’s mother; and she sat on his right. Then she said, “I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Make you request, my mother; for I will not refuse you.”
   (1 Kings 2:19-20; compare 1 Kings 1:15-16; 15:1)

3. Queen Mother of the Kingdom of Christ:
   a. God has “exalted” Mary to a “throne” (Luke 1:52)
   b. Now “All generations shall call me Blessed” (compare Psalm 45:)
      [To the King:]
      I address my verses to the king…
      Your divine throne endures for ever and ever…
      Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows…
      At your right hand stands the Queen in gold of Ophir.
      [To the Queen:]
      Hear, O Daughter, consider, and incline your ear…
      The people of Tyre will sue your favor with gifts…
      I will cause your name to be celebrated in all generations, therefore the peoples will praise you for ever and ever.
      (Psalm 45, 1, 6-7, 9, 10, 12, 17)

   b. Mary follows the Mosaic Law like Jesus, even though sinless
   c. The poverty of Saint Joseph and the Blessed Virgin: “a pair of turtledoves”
   d. Simeon: First Prophecy of Crucifixion and Mary’s Suffering with Christ

   Behold, this child is set for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be contradicted.
   And a sword will pierce your own soul too, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. (Luke 2:34-35)

4. The Massacre of the Infants and the Flight to Egypt (Matt 2:13-23)
   a. Mary’s Suffering Continues: the Massacre of the Infants

   The flight into Egypt and the massacre of the Infants manifest the opposition of darkness to the light... Christ’s whole life as lived under the sign of persecution. His own share it with him. (CCC 530)
   c. Mary as Refugee: from one foreign place to another (Jews in Egypt)
   a. Up to Jerusalem for the Feast of Passover

6. The Hidden Life of the Holy Family
   During the greater part of his life Jesus shared the condition of the vast majority of human being; a daily life spent without evident greatness, a life of manual labor...    b. “Behold your mother”: the Motherhood of Mary and the Cross (CCC 964)
3. Mary’s Participation in the Cross (cf. Col 1:24)

   The cross is the unique sacrifice of Christ, the “one mediator between God and men.” But because in his incarnate divine person he has in some way united himself to every man, “the possibility of being made partners, in a way known to God, in the paschal mystery” is offered to all men. He calls his disciples to “take up [their] cross and follow [him]...” In fact Jesus desires to associate with his redeeming sacrifice those who were to be its first beneficiaries. This is achieved supremely in the case of his mother, who was associated more intimately than any other person in the mystery of his redemptive suffering. “Apart from the cross, there is no other ladder by which we may get to heaven.” (CCC 618)

Mary, Mother of the Church (Acts 2)

   e. The Ark “ascends” into Heaven with the Messiah (Psalm 132:8-10)
The Perpetual Virginity of Mary: the Biblical Evidence

1. The Bible nowhere calls any other person than Jesus a son or daughter of Mary.

2. Mary’s response to the angel while betrothed to Joseph makes no sense unless she has taken some vow of virginity (Luke 1:27).

   And Mary said to the angel, “How shall this be, since I know not man?” (Luke 1:34)
   (Gk pos estai touto, epei andra ou ginosko;)

   All the angel has told her at this point is that she would conceive and bear a child; there is no reason for her to wonder how this would take place if she, as a betrothed woman, had any plans of having marital relations with Joseph.

3. The Greek word “until” (heos) in Matthew’s statement that Joseph “knew not” Mary “until she had borne her son” (Matt 1:25) does not imply a change afterward. For example:

   And Michal, the daughter of Saul, had not child until (Gk heos) the day of her death. (2 Sam 6:23 LXX).
   The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until (Gk heos) I put your enemies under your feet.” (Mark 12:36)

4. James and Joseph, called the “brothers” (Gk adelphoi) of Jesus (Matt 13:55), are later explicitly identified as the sons of a woman called “the other Mary” and “Mary, the mother of James and Joseph” (Matt 27:56, 61), who was present at Jesus’ crucifixion.

5. This “other Mary” is present at the foot of the Cross in John’s Gospel as well, where she is explicitly identified as the Virgin Mary’s “sister” (Gk adelphes) (John 19:25). This key verse demonstrates two important points:

   a. The Greek word for “sister” (adelphe) or “brother” (adelphos) can be used to refer to a close relative or cousin who is not a uterine brother or sister, as is often the case in the Greek Old Testament (see Gen 13:8; 14:16; CCC 500)

   b. This verse explains why James and Joseph are called Jesus’ “brothers” in Matthew’s Gospel; they are apparently the sons of his mother’s “sister”: i.e., they are his cousins.

6. Jesus’ entrustment of Mary to John the Apostle, the son of Zebedee, is totally inconceivable if he were survived by other children of Mary, especially if they were sons of hers:

   When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold, you son!” Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” And form that hour the disciple took her to his own home. (John 19:26)

7. The Perpetual Virginity of Mary is de fide Catholic doctrine (CCC 499, note 154)
