The Bible and the Mass:
The Jewish Roots of Christian Liturgy

Introduction:
What is the Liturgy?

Cardinal Ratzinger: “The presentation of the theology of the liturgy in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1077-1112) is fundamental.”

The Liturgy as a Twofold Mystery
1. A Twofold Mystery (CCC 1066)
   a. Mystery of the Holy Trinity: God in himself (Gk theologia)
   b. Mystery of the Divine Economy: God’s plan of salvation (Gk oikonomia)
2. Relationship between theologia and oikonomia (CCC 236)
3. Saint Paul and the “Plan of the Mystery”:
   a. To Unite All Things in Heaven and on Earth in Christ (Eph 1:9-10)
   b. Recapitulation: gathering up all of history and creation in Christ (CCC 668)
   c. The “Mystery” Hidden for Ages in God (Eph 3:7-13)

The Divine Economy and the Paschal Mystery
1. The Paschal Mystery: mechanism of our redemption
   a. Passion and Death
   b. Resurrection
   c. Ascension into Heaven
2. The Liturgy: celebrates “above all” the paschal mystery (CCC 1067)

The Meaning of “Liturgy”
1. The Word “Liturgy” (Gk leitourgia) (CCC 1067)
   a. “Public Work” or “Service”: original Greek meaning
   b. Participation of People of God in the “work of God” (Lt opus Dei) (John 17:4)
2. Christ the one true “Liturgist” : in the Heavenly Temple (Heb 8:2-6)
3. Every Liturgy is (CCC 1070)²
   a. An action of Christ the High Priest
   b. An action of the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church
   c. “A sacred actions surpassing all others” (SC 7)

The Liturgy and the Church
1. An action of the Church: “active participation” (Lat actuosa participatio) (SC 11)
2. Participation in Christ’s own Prayer to the Father (cf. John 17)
3. The Liturgy: “the source and goal” of “all Christian prayer” (CCC 1073)

² See Pius XII, Encyclical Letter, Mediator Dei (1947).
The Liturgy as Mystagogy

1. The Liturgy: the “privileged place for catechizing”! (CCC 1074)
2. Mystagogy: “to lead into the mysteries” (Greek)
3. Liturgical Catechesis: initiate people into the mysteries of Christ (CCC 1075)

   Visible  →  Invisible

   Sacraments  →  Mysteries
   Sacramentum  →  Mysterion (see CCC 774)

And he told us—all of the angels of the presence and all of the angels of sanctification, these two great kinds—that we might keep the sabbath with him in heaven and on earth... And thus he created therein a sign by which they might keep the sabbath with us on the seventh day, to eat and drink and bless the one who created all things just as he blessed and sanctified for himself a people who appeared from all the nations so that they might keep the sabbath together with us. And he caused their desires to go up as a pleasing fragrance, which is acceptable before him always. (Jubilees 2:17-22)"^6

And on that day when Adam went out from the garden of Eden, he offered a sweet-smelling sacrifice—frankincense, galbanum, statce, and spices—in the morning with the rising of the sun from the day he covered his shame. (Jubilees 3:27)

2. Lord, your are almighty forever, who makes the dead alive... who supports those who fall, heals the sick, frees the captive, and keeps your word faithfully to those who sleep in the dust... Blessed are You, Lord, who makes the dead alive.

6. Forgive us, our Father, for we have sinned; pardon us, our King, for we have transgressed. For you forgive and pardon. Blessed are You, Lord, gracious, rich in forgiveness.

7. Heal us, O Lord, and we shall all be healed, save us, and we shall be saved...

10. Proclaim our liberation with the great trumpet, and raise a banner to gather together our dispersed, and assemble us from the four corners of the earth. Blessed are you, Lord, who gathers the banished of your people Israel.

11. Restore our judges as in former times and our counsellors as in the beginning... and reign over us, you Lord alone, in grace and mercy; and justify us in judgement. Blessed are you, Lord, King, who loves justice and judgement.

14. And to Jerusalem, your city, return with mercy and dwell in its midst as you have spoken; and build it soon in our days to be an everlasting building; and raise up quickly in its midst the throne of David. Blessed are you, Lord, who builds Jerusalem.

How do they take up the First-fruits [to Jerusalem]? [The men of] all the smaller towns that belonged to the Maamad [a group of officially designated priests] gathered together... early in the morning the officer [of the Maamad] said, “Arise ye and let us go up to Zion unto the Lord our God” (quoting Jer 31:6).

They that were near [to Jerusalem] brought fresh figs and grapes, and they that were far off brought dried figs and raisins. Before them went the ox, having its horns overlaid with gold and a wreath of olive-leaves on its head. The flute was played before them until they drew nigh to Jerusalem. When they had drawn nigh to Jerusalem they sent messengers before them and bedecked their First-Fruits. The rulers and the prefects [=chief priests and Levites] and the treasurers of the of the Temple went forth to meet them. According to the honour due to them that came in used they to go forth. And all the craftsmen in Jerusalem used to rise up before them and greet them, saying, “Brethren, men of such-and-such a place, ye are welcome!”

The flute was played before them until they reached the Temple Mount. When they reached the Temple Mount even Agrippa the king would take his basket on his shoulder and enter in as far as the Temple Court. When they reached the Temple court, the levites sang the song: “I will exalt thee, O LORD, for thou hast set me up and not made mine enemies to triumph over me” (quoting Psalm 30). (Mishnah, Bikkurim 3:2-4)

The Heavenly Temple and the Tongues of Fire

And behold I [Enoch] saw the cloud... And I kept coming (into heaven)... And as I shook and trembled, I fell upon my face and saw a vision. And behold there was an opening before me (and) a second house which is greater than the former and everything was built with tongues of fire. And in every respect it excelled (the other)—in glory and great honor—to the extent that it is impossible for me to recount to you concerning its glory and greatness. As for its floor, it was of fire and above it was lightning and the path of the stars; and as for the ceiling, it was flaming fire. And I observed and saw inside it a lofty throne—its appearance was like crystal and its wheels like the shining sun; and (I heard) the voice of the cherubim; and from beneath the throne were issuing streams of flaming fire. It was difficult to look at it. And the Great Glory was sitting up on it—as for his gown, which was shining more brightly than the sun, it was whiter than any snow. (1 Enoch 14:8-25)
Jesus and the Jewish Feasts: Part 3
Fall Feasts

Yom Kippur: The Stripping of the High Priest
They brought him [the High Priest] to the Parwah Chamber which stood in holy ground. They spread a line sheet between him and the people... R. Meier says: He stripped off his clothes and afterward sanctified [washed] his hands and his feet. He went down and immersed himself, came up and dried himself. They brought him white garments; he put them on and sanctified his hands and his feet. (Mishnah Yoma 3:6; trans. Danby, p. 165)

Later Jewish Tradition: The Miracle of the Scarlet Thread
1. The Priest tied “a thread of crimson wool” to the head of the Scapegoat (m. Yoma 4:2).
2. The Priest tied a thread around the “throat” of the goat to be sacrificed (m. Yoma 4:2).
3. The Goat was “delivered” to a Gentile (non-Israelite) to be ‘led away’ (m. Yoma 6:3).
4. The Scarlet Thread: one half tied to rock before Goat is pushed over a cliff into valley (m. Yoma 6:6).
5. How did they know the Goat had died?

The Miracle of the Scarlet Thread
Rabbi Ishmael says: Had they not another sign also?—a thread of crimson wool was tied to the door of the Sanctuary and when the he-goat reached the wilderness the thread turned white; for it is written, “Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be white as snow” (Isa 1:18). (Mishnah, Yoma 6:8)

“[Jewish] tradition has it that when the sacrifice was fully accepted the scarlet-mark which the scape-goat had borne became white, to symbolise the gracious promise in Isa. 1:18 [“Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be white as snow.”], but it adds that this miracle did not take place for forty years before the destruction of the Temple!” (Alfred Edersheim, The Temple, p. 249)

The Sprinkling of the Blood of Atonement
1. The priest would do this quickly so as not to cause “terror” in the people (m. Yoma 5:1).
2. Time of Jesus: no Ark of the Covenant; blood sprinkled on the “Foundation Stone” (m. Yoma 5:2).
3. Remainder of Blood: “poured out” at the base of the Altar; ran down into river Kidron (m. Yoma 5:6).

The Jewish Roots of the Catholic Mass

The Jewish Confiteor: Prayer over Sacrifice

The offerer lays hands on the sacrifice while saying the following prayer: “I entreat, O LORD: that I have sinned, I have done perversely, I have rebelled, I have committed (naming the sin, trespass, or in the case of a burnt-offering, the breach of a positive or negative command); but I return in repentance, and let this be for my atonement.” (Edersheim, The Temple, 82)

The Psalms Sung Daily in the Temple by the Levites

This was the singing which the Levites used to sing in the Temple: On the first day they sang “The earth is the Lord’s and all that therein is, the round world and they that dwell therein” (Psalm 24); on the second day they sang “Great is the Lord and highly to be praised in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill” (Psalm 48); on the third day they sang “God standeth in the congregation of God, he is a judge among the gods” (Psalm 82); on the fourth day they sang “O Lord God to whom vengeance belongeth, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth show thyself” (Psalm 94); on the fifth day they sang “Sing we merrily unto God our strength, make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob” (Psalm 81); on the sixth day they sang, “The Lord is king, and hath put on glorious apparel” (Psalm 93). On the Sabbath they sang “A Psalm: A Song for the Sabbath Day” (Psalm 92); a Psalm for the time that is to come, for the day that shall be all Sabbath and rest in the everlasting. (Mishnah, Tamid 7:4; Trans. Danby, 589).

Jewish Blessing over Bread and Wine

“Blessed are You, Lord God, who createth the fruit of the vine.”
“Blessed are You, Lord God, who bringest forth bread from the earth.”
(Mishnah, Berakhot, 6:1)

“Lift Up Your Hearts”: to the Heavenly Temple

Rabbi Hiyya and Rabbi Simeon ben Rabbi once sat together, when one of them began as follows: A man who offers up his prayers must direct his eyes towards [the Temple] below, for it is said, “And Mine eyes and Mine heart shall be there perpetually” (1 Kgs 9:3). And the other said: The eye of him who offers up prayers shall be directed towards [the heavens] above, for it is said “Let us lift up our heart with our hand” (Lam 3:41). In the meanwhile they were joined by Rabbi Ishmael son of Rabbi Jose. “On what subject are you engaged?” he asked them. “On the subject of prayer,” they replied. “My father,” he said to them, “ruled thus: A man who offers up his prayers must direct his eyes to the [Temple] below and his heart towards [the heavens] above so that these two Scriptural texts may be complied with. (Babylonian Talmud, Yebamoth 105b)
The Our Father and Jewish Daily Prayer

“Our Father who art in heaven, show mercy with us for the sake of Thy great name by which we are called;
and fulfil unto us, O Lord our God, that which hath been written,
‘At that time I will bring you in, and at that time I will gather you’ (Ezek 36);
Our God who art in heaven,
assert the unity of Thy name, and establish Thy kingdom continually, and reign over us for ever and ever.” (Jewish Morning Prayer, Kaddish)

“Magnified and Sanctified be His great name in the world which He hath created according to His will.
May He establish his Kingdom during your life...”’ (Kaddish daily prayer)

“Forgive us, our Father, for we have sinned;
pardon us, O our King, for we have transgressed;
for Thou art gracious, who dost forgive.” (6th Benediction of Amidah)

“O Lead us not into sin, or transgression, iniquity, temptation, or shame...”
“May it be Thy will... to deliver me this day, and every day,
from arrogant men and from arrogance....
and from any mishap, and from the adversary that destroyeth...”
“For the kingdom is Thine, and to all eternity Thou wilt reign in glory.”
(Jewish Prayer, Alenu; Idelsohn, Jewish Liturgy, 307-308)

St. Michael the Archangel and the Heavenly Altar

“And God set them in the firmament of the heaven” (Gen 1:17). Shehakim is that in which millstones stand and grind manna for the righteous for it is said: “And He commanded the skies [Shehakim] above, and opened the doors of heaven; and He caused manna to rain upon them for food” (Ps 78:23-24) etc. Zebul is that in which [the heavenly] Jerusalem and the Temple and the Altar are built, and Michael, the great Prince, stands and offers up thereon an offering, for it is said: “I have surely built Thee a house of habitation [Zebul], a place for thee to dwell in for ever” (1 Kgs 8:13). And whence do we derive that it is called heaven? For it is written: “Look down from heaven, and see, even from Thy holy and glorious habitation” (Isa 63:15)....
