Meet the Designer

I come from a powerful lineage of creative women - my love of design was inherited from my mother who was a fashion designer, and she learned from her mother before her. It was with my mother that I learned to design clothes first for my dolls, then for myself and other women.

My design aesthetic is inspired by a combination of influences: nature, travel, spirituality, artistry, my multicultural background as Nigerian, British, and Caymanian, and my lovely island life. I write and narrate magical island stories as the inspirations for my prints, and I use my designs to deepen the message of the stories to connect and communicate with my audience on multiple levels

Let me Tell You a Story About...

WISDOM, COURAGE, SELF-BELIEF, JOY, WITH A SPRINKLE OF MAGIC.

Isy B. invites you on a journey through the world of her imagination with the Storyteller Collections.

The Storyteller collections are inspired by whimsical Island folktales written and narrated by designer Isy B. and well-known local storytellers, Nasaria Suckoo-Cholette and Virginia Suckoo.

Made up of limited-edition collectors' items, from inspirational lifestyle accessories to vibrantly elegant clothing, the storyteller collections are designed for bringing the joy of island life to your everyday.

The combination of visual design and audio narrations communicate the message of the stories on multiple levels.

Queen of the Seas

A magical tale in which Coral comes to understand her worth, reminding you that you too, are a valuable and essential part of all creation.

When Orchid Bloomed

A fable about an Orchid who learns to accept herself, inspiring you to trust in your innate strength and beauty and celebrate what makes you unique.

How the Islanders Learned to Dance

The tale of islanders who remember how to see the beauty and love that surrounds them, and to live in that joy.

Adara and the Cheetah

Amidst the clamor of voices, one learns to hear their inner voice and unlocks their true power. A fable of self-discovery and resilience.

How the Butterflies Got Their Colour

A story about the metamorphosis of a beautiful butterfly that will inspire you to be confident in your own skin.

Mekaya's Song

The tale of a young musician who overcomes adversity, reminding you that you, too, can emerge from difficulties stronger than before.

Una's Wish

An enchanting fable about embracing imperfection—a self-discovery on how our individual traits are what make us unique.

The five hand-drawn prints take their inspiration from traditional Caymanian folktales. Each print tells a unique and inspiring story from the Islands, bringing to life the rich cultural heritage and captivating narratives.

Every product comes with a tag that leads you to one of the inspirational Caymanian stories making it a meaningful gift to remember.
